W<sup>o</sup> Langley In the Name of God Amen - I Walter B. Langley of the County of Henderson,
- Will and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following:

I devise to my beloved wife Juliana Langley the tract of land with its appurtenances, whereon I now live containing about six hundred acres, so have and so hold the said tract of land with its appurtenances, for and during the term of the natural life of my said wife Juliana, and after her death the said tract of land is to be sold as hereinafter directed. I also devise and bequeath to my said wife Juliana for and during the term of her natural life, one third part of all my Negro Slaves, Chattels and other personal property, which I now own and have, or may hereafter acquire and do propose of or intend to, which said devise and bequests are made in full satisfaction of any claim of dower of my estate.

I devise, give and bequeath two third parts of my Negro Slaves, Chattels and other personal property, which I now own or have, or may hereafter acquire and do propose of or intend to, to my following children, Sarah B. Blackburn wife of Gray Blackburn, Caroline M. Dillingham wife of John B. Dillingham, Susan B. Langley, Eliza A. Langley, Judith B. Langley, Samuel M. A. Langley, Martha A. Langley, William W. Langley, John B. Langley, Hannah B. Langley, Maria B. Langley and Thomas W. B. Langley to be equally divided between them and the children I may hereafter have, excepting however from this equality of division Sarah B. Blackburn, Caroline M. Dillingham, Susan B. Langley, Eliza A. Langley, Judith B. Langley, Samuel M. A. Langley and Martha A. Langley children by my first wife Judith Langley formerly Judith Young, which said children by my first wife are each to receive five hundred dollars less than my other children here named, and the children I may hereafter have. And the two third parts of the said Slaves, personal property and Chattels are to be divided among my children here before mentioned, and the children I may hereafter have, after first charging each of my above named children by my first wife, with the sum of five hundred dollars, without interest, as if the same had been received by them. This provision is made in consequence of my said children by my first wife being entitled to a portion of the estate of their deceased Grand Father Allen Young late of the State of Virginia.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary B. Langley sometimes called Mary B. Collins the sum of One Dollar, it being my will and desire that the said Mary B. Langley sometimes called Mary B. Collins shall receive no other portion of my lands, Slaves, Chattels, money, property real, personal or mixed, which now own or may hereafter acquire, in consequence of this said devise and bequest to my family. After the death of my said wife Juliana I devise the before mentioned tract of land, herein before devised to my said wife, to Fayette Power and John Holloway my executors herein after named in trust to sell the said tract of land, immediately after the death of my said wife, upon a Credit of One two and three years in equal payments, and to divide the money arising from the sale of said land as received in manner herein after directed.

My further Will and devise is, that after the death of my said wife Juliana the Negro Slaves, Chattels, and other personal property devised and bequeathed to my said wife Juliana during her life, together with the money arising from the sale of said tract of land devised to my executors to be sold as before mentioned, shall be equally divided among my children herein before named (excepting from the benefit of this devise and bequest however, my daughter Mary B. Langley sometimes called Mary B. Collins, which said daughter Mary is to receive no portion of my estate and property, lands, tenements or hereditaments now owned by me, or which may hereafter be acquired by me except the sum of One Dollar herein before bequeathed to her) and the children I may hereafter have. In the division of the Slaves, Chattels and other personal property devised and bequeathed to my wife, and the money arising from the sale of my land herein before mentioned, my daughter Sarah B. Blackburn and Caroline M. Dillingham are to be charged with the sum of Four Hundred dollars each, without interest, which said sum is to be deducted from each of their shares, as they have already received property from me to that amount.

It is my further Will and devise, that in the division of the Slaves, Chattels and other property devised to my said wife for life, and the money arising from the sale of the before mentioned tract of land, among my children as above herein named, and such children as I may hereafter have, each child who has received or may hereafter receive any portion of my property, shall account for the value of said property at the time it was received (and the amount of said value is to be deducted from the portion to which said child would be entitled). My further will and devise is, that all the lands I may hereafter purchase or acquire shall be equally divided among my before mentioned children, Sarah B. Blackburn, Caroline M. Dillingham, Susan B. Langley, Eliza A. Langley, Judith B. Langley, Samuel M. A. Langley, Martha A. Langley, William W. Langley, John B. Langley, Walter B. Langley, Maria B. Langley, Hannah B. Langley and Thomas W. B. Langley and the children I may hereafter have. If any of which said children shall without leaving children, then their share to be divided among such children here mentioned and intended to be provided for as may and the children of such as may have died, said children to receive portions to which their deceased Parents would have been entitled. It being my separate will and desire that all the devise and herein made shall not be defeated, or be lapsed by the death of my said Children here named, or which I may hereafter have, but that the portion of any of my Children dying either during my lifetime or after my death, shall be enjoyed and possessed by the Children of my said Children thus dying, which said Grand Children shall receive the devise and bequests to which their deceased parent would have been entitled, if he had survived me. - It being my express Will and desire that if any of my Children should die without leaving children living at the time of his death, then share of the devise and bequests herein contained is to be divided among the surviving Children which I now have or may hereafter have, and the Children of such as may have died said children receiving the share of their deceased parent, excepting however from the benefit of this clause, my said Daughter Mary herein before mentioned, who is to receive no portion of my estate, and no portion of the share, devise and bequests to my other children, except the sum of One Dollar herein before bequeathed to her.

In addition to the devise and bequests herein before mentioned to my wife Juliana I devise and bequeath to my said wife Juliana all my right title and claim to any estate, lands, lots or other property which my said wife is entitled to, or claims in the State of Indiana. I constitute and appoint my wife Juliana executrix and Fayette Posey and John G. Sullivan executors of this my last Will and Testament, which said executrix and executors in case my perishable property should not be sufficient for the payment of my debts, all of which I desire to be paid, are hereby vested with full power and authority to sell such other portion or part of my estate as in their opinion shall be most advantageous, as will be fully sufficient for the payment of all my just debts. I have to revoke all Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty fourth day of February in the year One thousand eight hundred and thirty four.
