

say, One third to E. & Patterson, One third to Luella and one third to Lillian. In the event that E. & Patterson dies before Luella & Lillian, her third shall descend to Luella and Lillian claims equally, or to which one who survives E. & Patterson. And in the event Luella and Lillian should both die before E. & Patterson, leaving no issue alive, then said interest of Luella & Lillian to descend to my daughter E. & Patterson. And in the event either one of said children (Luella & Lillian), shall die before E. & Patterson, leaving Luella or Lillian alive, then of the deceased child (leaves no issue) alive, her interest shall descend to her surviving sister and E. & Patterson equally and absolutely. And in the event E. & Patterson, Luella & Lillian shall sell and dispose of said lot and its improvements, then I will and bequeath and direct that out of the proceeds of the sale, that my son Edward Jacob be paid the sum of Two hundred Dollars ($200.00), I hereby appoint my daughter E. & Patterson my Executor and request the Hon. County Court to permit her to qualify without giving bond with security, hereby revoking and declaring void all former wills heretofore made by me.

This 3rd December 1868

Witness
John A. N. King
Warren, Thornberry

E. S. Jacob

State of Kentucky, 2000

Henderson County 3 February County Court 1870 (28th day)

The foregoing last Will and Testament of E. S. Jacob dec^d was proven and proved in open Court according to law, by the oaths of John L. A. King and Warren Thornberry, subscribing witnesses, and ordered to be recorded, which is here done accordingly.

(No page 261)

Attest Francis E. Walker Sec

L. Williams
Will

Henderson County Kentucky September 23rd 1861 this being my last Will and Testament during my life time I am to beget my property and after my Death I give Charlotte Porter my son and on Wren Pryor living in Henderson County Ky also one Red and Red close I give Mark of Mann two lots in Calhoun one Logan County Ky I give Caroline A. Chancy one Rowan I give Hugh Mann one Christ formerly owned by his mother I leave Mr James White Exor

text
James White
R. D. Triplett

State of Kentucky 2000
Henderson County

This last Will and Testament of Lucrecia H. Mann dec^d was produced and proved in open Court by the oaths of James White and R. D. Triplett in acting Witnesses thereto according to law and ordered to be recorded which is here done accordingly.

attest Francis E. Walker Sec

Self
Will

I Albert C. Grubbsfield of the County of Henderson in the State of Kentucky do make, constitute and enact this my last and Testament in manner and form following that is to say: I am 1st Single and do hereby direct that all my just debts shall be paid as soon as practicable. I am 2nd I will and bequeath to my son Albert Grubbsfield Two Hundred Dollars to be used by me Executor in completing his education. I have expended at least that amount on my two oldest children. I do this in justice to him. I am 3rd I will and direct that the remainder of my estate both real, personal and mixed shall be equally divided between my wife Mary J. Grubbsfield, my daughter Fanny L. Grubbsfield and my two sons James Stephen Grubbsfield and Albert Grubbsfield. I am 4th I do hereby nominate and appoint my dear wife Fanny J. Grubbsfield Executor of this my last Will and Testament and direct that she shall advance to my daughter Fanny L. Grubbsfield Five Hundred Dollars in her own name and to my son James Stephen Grubbsfield the like sum ($500.00) when he arrives at the age of 21 years. The balance of my estate I wish kept together for the benefit of all my family but I wish my said Executor at any time to make such advances to either of my children as she may think advisable and she is hereby empowered to do so. I am 5th I will and direct that no one be required of my said Executor by the Court on her making up as such. I do hereby certify that I have executed at my hand and seal this 16th day of July 1868.

I read and acknowledged in the presence of J. H. Newman
P. C. Long

State of Kentucky 2000

Henderson County 3 August County Court 1870 Special Term 26th day. This day a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. C. Grubbsfield was produced and proved in open Court to be the last Will and Testament of said Grubbsfield, by the evidence of J. H. Newman one of the subscribing witnesses of the said Will, the other witness P. C. Long being dead. Said Will being proved that said Will was signed and published in his last sickness and in the presence of the other subscribing witnesses to said paper as the last Will and Testament of said Grubbsfield, and was signed by him, and the other subscribing witnesses, in the presence and at the request of said Grubbsfield and in the presence of each other. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper is the true last Will and Testament of said A. C. Grubbsfield and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done accordingly.

(H. S. 40)

Attest Francis E. Walker Sec

In the name of God Amen I, J. D. Dillingham, one of the County of Madison, State of Kentucky, being at the present time sound in mind and memory, do hereby make and constitute this my last Will and Testament hereby bequeathing all other real and personal property by me made, 1st I bequeath that all my just debts be fully and fairly paid off by my Executor, 2nd I bequeath unto my beloved wife Caroline D. Dillingham all my property of every description, including Slaves, Cattle, &c. I will, and every thing else that I may be lawfully possessed of at the time of my death, all of which she may dispose of as she may see proper, lawfully and finally my wish and desire is that my wife Caroline M. Dillingham be my Executor, and that she be permitted so to do without being required to execute Bond, To all of which I do subscribe my name in Sadness this 9th day of December 1858

Witness my hand and seal
J. D. Dillingham

Attest
J. H. Crockett

State of Kentucky 3rd of December County Court 1870 Special Term 2nd
This day a Paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John D. Dillingham was produced and given in open Court to be the true last Will and Testament of said Dillingham, by the reading of J. H. Crockett one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will. The other witnesses James Walters and W. H. H. Crockett being present, said John D. Crockett being first duly sworn stated that said Will was signed and published in his presence and in the presence of the other subscribing witnesses to said Paper as the last Will and Testament of said Dillingham, and was signed to him and the other subscribing witnesses in the presence and at the request of said Dillingham, and in the presence of each other, it is therefore adjudged that said Paper is the true last Will and Testament of said John D. Dillingham, and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done accordingly.

Attest Francis C. Walker Clerk

Madison R. Small This my only Will and Testament made this the 26th day of December in the year of our Lord 1870. I being in sound mind but in very poor health, and desiring of distributing my estate among the following persons first I bequeath to my sister Mary E. Small Three hundred Dollars I bequeath to Sarah E. Small Three hundred Dollars, also to her A. Follen Three hundred Dollars, and to my daughter Madeline C. Follen One hundred Dollars. I bequeath to Sarah A. Follen to be paid in hand by my Executors and drawn by my Executors at the rate of One hundred Dollars quarterly and paid to her also the One hundred Dollars that I bequeath to Madeline C. Follen to be paid in hand by my said Executors & drawn by them to pay for her schooling. I also bequeath to William F. Follenman Five hundred Dollars and I give to Mary E. Follenman One hundred Dollars & to Susan R. Follenman One hundred Dollars and I give to Julia F. Follen One hundred Dollars also I give to Emily Wette One hundred Dollars & I bequeath to Madeline Wette Three hundred Dollars and I bequeath to Margaret J. Small One hundred Dollars I also give to the trustees of the Methodist Church in Georgetown Fifty Dollars. I also give my dear servant Daphy Two hundred Dollars. I give to John & Jonathan & Mary Small family slaves fifty to each, and I give Mary E. Small another family servant fifty Dollars and I give to Emily Small another servant Twenty Five Dollars, and I give in satisfaction that I have three other name sales, and in account of these names I bequeath to Mary E. Small Fifty Dollars and I bequeath to Madeline Follen Fifty Dollars and I bequeath to Sarah Wette One hundred Dollars. I also bequeath to Joseph C. Harmon Two hundred Dollars. It is understood that the foregoing bequests are to be made at my death, & it is my wish & my full purpose and will that at death that I should be buried at Old Pleasant Hill by the side of my husband and that my Executors put an iron fence around our graves with six stone & iron stones at the head of my grave. And it is my will and desire that Mr. H. Campbell and Henry C. Small act as my Executors. Charles Henry Whiffle I should subscribe my name this the day & date above written.

Witness my hand
J. H. Small
P. E. Wood

Signed by Madeline R. Small

State of Kentucky 3rd of January County Court 1871 7th day
This day a Paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Madeline R. Small dec'd. was produced and given in open Court by the reading of J. H. Small and P. E. Wood two subscribing witnesses to be the true and last Will and Testament of said Madeline R. Small, said Will was adjudged sufficiently proven and ordered to be recorded, which is here done accordingly.

H. Page 268 Attest Francis C. Walker Clerk

John B. Hollway I John B. Hollway of Anderson County, Kentucky, do make and ordain, this my last Will and Testament, my office is to provide for my wife and to equalize my children in the distribution of my estate. Whereas I will and bequeath as follows: I give to my wife Sarah M. Hollway an annuity of One thousand Dollars per annum for her life, to be paid to her semi-annually so long as she may live and I give to her my stock and all the balance of two horses with their harness. I give to her I will and desire that my said wife shall have the privilege of disposing by her last will and Testament of the sum of Ten thousand Dollars of my estate, provided that she only be to one or more of my children or their descendants. The office being to enable her thereby to recover such of them as may owe her for their father, and obedience to her after my death, and also to relieve such as may have wronged her. It is of course to be understood that my unpaid debts to my children is modified so far as this clause implies. I give to her the log of land on which my house stands, containing 300 acres, together with the house and all the furniture and with sufficient live stock of all kinds including Cows and horses together with the necessary farming implements including traps, dogs, ploughs, and so sufficient to start said house together with fruits and pursuing of all kinds sufficient for one years consumption for said wife and her inmates. I give to my said wife in trust for herself and