

Wm Martin Will

BOOK C PAGE 316

My last Will and Testament — I devise and bequeath to my son Lloyd Martin all of my Estate of every sort wherever the same may be situated real personal or mixed. And I hereby appoint John R Long Trustee of my son Lloyd Martin to manage the property hereby devised to said Lloyd. And I hold the same in trust for him until he arrives at the age of Twenty one years when he arrives at that age the property hereby devised shall be delivered to be used and disposed of by him as he may think best.

State, Alex McPurch
Francis E Walker
Washington Martin

State of Kentucky — Henderson County May County Court (2nd day of May) 1874
This day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Wm Martin dec^d was produced in Court and proved according to Law by the Oaths of J. E. Walker & Alex McPurch subscribing witnesses thereto it is therefore adjudged that the said instrument is the last will and testament of said Wm Martin dec^d and it is so recorded as such therefore the same is duly recorded. Witness my hand this June 3rd 1874
16 page 317
Francis E Walker & Co
By Frank E Walker & Co

John Wickes
Will

I John Wickes of Henderson County Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory and wishing to direct the succession of all the estate which I may have on or at the time of my death do hereby make and publish to my last Will and testament hereby revoking any and all other testamentary papers by me made. First my will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate. Second I bequeath and bequeath all of my estate real personal and mixed which I may own at the time of my death and all legal and equitable interests to my beloved wife Permelia Wickes to have and her heirs forever. Third I nominate constitute & appoint Mr. R. Randolph executor of this my last Will. In Witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand this thirtieth day of November 1871

Signed acknowledged & published in presence of

Alfred W. Morris
Roth P. Powell
Charles E. Bell

State of Kentucky, County
Henderson County

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Wickes dec^d was on the 2nd day of April 1874 produced to the Court and proved by the Oaths of Mr. W. Morris one of the subscribing witnesses thereto to be the true last Will and Testament of said decedent, and afterwards on the 2nd day of May, 1874 the said paper was again produced and proved by the Oaths of Charles E. Bell another subscribing witness thereto to be the true last will and testament of said decedent. It was thereupon adjudged that the said paper was fully proved, and that the same be admitted to record and the same is now certified and recorded. Attest Francis E. Walker & Co. Secy

By Alex McPurch & Co

R. W. Agnew
Will

BOOK C PAGE 317

Know all men by these — that I Andrew W. Agnew do make and publish this my last Will and Testament. I will that my tract of land on which I — containing a 'cut' four hundred acres, be divided as follows, namely: Whereas I am indebted to Franklin Gallows by note of hand in the sum of Six hundred Dollars, in full satisfaction and for payment in full of said note and interest thereon, I will to the said Gallows and his wife the tract or parcel of land. Beginning at a stone in the corner with R. W. Agnew's line to another stone in said R. W. Agnew's line and corner to R. G. Wright, thence south easterly, corner with said Wright line a sufficient distance to make eighty acres, by running a parallel line with the first line described above. The said Franklin Gallows and his wife is to have and to hold said tract of land with all appurtenances thereto belonging, forever. The Hancock and Agnew Tract of land is situated on the above described tract or parcel of land, and is hereby reserved to the amount of one acre, and the said Gallows is to have eighty acres of land after this reserve is made. To my niece Caroline V. Agnew widow of John J. Agnew dec^d I will the following tract of or parcel of land, bounded as follows: Beginning at the R. W. Agnew east corner of the Spring Rock fence at a gate and near a large branch of water willow, thence with the Spring Rock fence a south westerly course to the corner of the young orchard fence, thence with the young apple or hard fence to a stake in the water between the sixth and seventh rows, thence strata between said rows south westerly, to a stake in the line of R. G. Wright, thence south easterly, corner with the line of the said Wright and a line of O. Mills to his corner & corner also to R. W. Agnew thence with said O. Mills line and the line of Henry Bonds to an east end and a stone mark J. K. and a standing in the line of Henry Bonds, thence a north westerly course strata to the field fence at the point where a ditch strikes the fence and along the fence, thence the same north westerly, corner continued up the said ditch, with the meadows thereof to the land at a gate, thence down the water of the lane to the mouth of a ditch on the west side of the lane, then across said ditch with the meadows thereof to the beginning to have and to hold the said tract of land with all appurtenances thereto belonging, during her life time or so long as she is the widow of John J. Agnew, then this lot or tract of land is to her son, R. W. Agnew and right title rest in him forever. To my wife Elizabeth V. Agnew I will the remainder of my tract of land on which I am living, and not disposed of supposed to be 200 acres, June 3rd 1874. R. W. Agnew, supposed to be about two hundred acres be the same more or less to have and to hold the same her life time with all the rights and appurtenances thereto belonging and at her death, she may dispose of one half of said tract of land as she may think best to do, sales will to her my said wife, to have and to hold in her own right forever, all of my house hold furniture, stock of all kind belonging to the all of my farming tools, waggon & buggy together with all money due and owing to me at my death, and crops of corn, beans, wheat and oats, hay or grass that may be growing or on hand, with this understanding that the above bequests are made in law of lower, and out of the money due and owing to me, the crops of tobacco on hand and the other crops and the stock, is to see that all of my just debts are paid, June 3rd 1874 A. W. Agnew.

BOOK C PAGE 318

To my two nephews James Hancock and John H. Agnew, I will to them eighty acres of land left to my wife hereinafter, said eighty acres is to be equally divided between the said James and John after my wife's death and my— has full power to sell and convey, or will do as she please. Space grants the right to the Hancock and Agnew Tract yard is hereby vested in R. W. Agnew, R. W. Agnew, A. W. Hancock and John H. Hancock to the amount of one acre of land for a burial place for the two families but not for strangers that is not of a kin to the Hancock & Agnew families. I hereby appoint Robert Easton the County Surveyor to make survey of the lands herein directed to be done and the said Easton is hereby directed to make deeds to the parties named. On Witness Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name in the presence of witnesses June 3rd 1874

Thomas E. Eble
George M. Sights
John H. Hancock
R. W. Sights

A. W. Agnew

W. H. D. D. W. H.

State of Kentucky }
Henderson County }

Neigues County Court 1874 24th day
This day a Paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Andrew W. Agnew dec^d late of Henderson County Ky. was produced in Court and proved according to law, by the evidence of R. W. Sights, Thomas E. Eble and John H. Hancock subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore adjudged that said paper is the true last Will and Testament of said Andrew W. Agnew dec^d and ordered to be recorded as such— thereupon the same is with this certificate truly recorded in my Office—
(I Page 363) Attest
George W. Smith Clerk
By Alex. M. Church De

T. P. Whitman
- Will -

I, T. P. Whitman of Henderson County in the State of Kentucky made my last Will and Testament as follows to wit: 1st I wish all my just debts and funeral expenses paid, 2nd I wish & direct that there shall be set apart to my wife such personal property as the law at the time of my decease directs to be set apart to widows in cases of intestacy. 3rd I desire and direct that my wife shall have one third of my real estate for her life and the same shall be set apart or laid off to her out of such of my lands or in such location as she may desire. 4th I give to my grand children— Belle Ann Randolph, Theodore P. Randolph & Lizzie Randolph being the children of my deceased daughter Rebecca M. London, her first husband was named Randolph the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50⁰⁰) each, this is all they or either of them are to have of my property or estate. 5th I give to my son Theodore P. Whitman one half of the tract of land of about 207 acres which I purchased of Ben

BOOK C PAGE 319

Faulkner, to be laid off next to M. H. Lammons place, this I give in addition to his share as provided in this last clause; and I give it because he is a 'laid and able to work but little.' 6th All the balance of my property and estate, Real, Personal and Mixed of what several character and wherever situated, I desire and direct shall be equally divided among all my children living at the time of my death, if I should die before my wife, I desire & direct that the remainder of the land which she is to have for life, shall also be equally divided among my children living at the time of my death, in case any of my present living children should die before I do, then their children if any shall have their share, it bears my hand this 13th day of September A. D. 1871

T. P. Whitman

Signed and acknowledged by T. P. Whitman as his last Will and Testament, in presence of us, who at his request and in his presence signed the same as witnesses

P. H. Lockhart
Francis C. Walker

State of Kentucky }
Henderson County }

October County Court 1874
Continued 24th day of October 1874
This day a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of T. P. Whitman late of Henderson County Ky. deceased, was produced in open Court, and P. H. Lockhart one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, being first duly sworn testified that said instrument was signed and published by the said T. P. Whitman in his presence and in the presence of Francis C. Walker the other subscribing witness thereto, and declared by him to be his last Will and Testament, that said witnesses subscribed the same at the time and in the presence of said T. P. Whitman and of each other, that said witnesses had known said Whitman well for the fifteen years last past, that in the judgment said Whitman was of sound mind and disposing memory at the time he executed said paper, and that Francis C. Walker the other witness thereto was now dead. It is therefore adjudged that said instrument is the true last Will and Testament of said T. P. Whitman and ordered to be recorded as such. Thereupon the same is duly recorded in my Office. (I Page 318)

Attest

George W. Smith Clerk
By Alex. M. Church De

Harriet E. Laury
- Will -

I Harriet E. Laury in the presence of Almighty God and three witnesses, do make this my last Will and Testament, I give and bequeath to my three daughters, Mrs. A. Laury, Harriet E. Laury and Susan M. Laury, jointly the house and lot situated in the City of Henderson, on the corner of Green and upper eighth cross street, fronting eight street fifty feet and running back on Green 208 feet. To my son Robert H. Laury, I give seventy feet of my lot known as the 'Wagon Yard' situated in said City, and running back 208 feet, so as to include the two houses next to the residence of Judge Milton Young dec^d said seventy foot lot being part of a lot of