Will

Know all men by these presents that I Hugh F. Norment of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being in good health and of a sound and disposing mind and memory, do make my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former will by me at any time heretofore made - First I hereby constitute and appoint J. H. Craze to be sole executor of this my last will, directing my said Executor to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses. I give & devise to my nephew a piece of land forming a part of the said L. F. Norment and M. L. Vanbussum purchased of B. A. Lutz & supposed to contain about thirteen acres bounded as follows, Beginning at four live oaks near said L. F. Norment and Vanbussum's live oaks, near the big road, thence with a branch running north west to a ditch, thence with said ditch to the line between M. L. Jacobs and said L. F. Norment and Vanbussum's chopped line, thence with said line to the corner near the big road, thence with said L. F. Norment and Vanbussum's line to the beginning, reserving a passway from the big road to my dwelling house, whereto the path now is. I give the remainder of my land to my two grand children, Lewis of my daughter Ann and Julia Smith to be equally divided between them. I bid L. F. Norment to have possession of said land at my death - I do hereby certify that I have executed this my last will and Testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below this 21st day of June in the year 1867.

E. S. Jacob
Will

In the name of God Amen - I Cynthia S. Jacob, widow of Arnold Jacob, deceased, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and Testament as follows, First, I give and bequeath to my Grand children George Jacob, Charlotte Jacob, Althea Jacob, Gertrude Jacob and Frederick Jacob, the sum of One Dollar each, to be paid by my Executor out of my estate, which shall be in full of their portion of my estate. Second, I give and bequeath to my Grand children Emma McCawley and Molly Perkins One Dollar each out of my estate, which shall be in full of the portion of each in my estate. Third, I will and bequeath to my two grand children, Luella Morris, and Lillian Morris, my bed and carriage, and harness, absolutely to be equally owned and enjoyed by them. Fourth, I give and bequeath to my son Thad. L. Jacob and my daughter Adelia J. Gendry, wife of Henry Genders One Dollar each, in addition to what I have heretofore given them to each of them in my life time, and my executor is directed to pay each of them said One Dollar in full of their portion of my estate. Fifth, I give and bequeath to my Grand children Luella and Lillian Morris equally the balance of my personal estate, including house hold and kitchen furniture, which I may own at my death, and to be enjoyed by them equally and absolutely. Sixth, I will and bequeath to my daughter Elora E. Patton and my two grand children, Luella & Lillian Morris equally, my dwelling house and lot in Paducah Ky, on which I now live, together with the outbuildings, and adjoining James Campbell, which I purchased from Deussen and wife to be equally enjoyed by them, that is to say, One third to E. & Patterson, One third to Luella and one third to Lillian. In the event that E. & Patterson dies before Luella & Lillian, her third shall descend to Luella and Lillian claims equally, or to which one who survives E. & Patterson. And in the event Luella and Lillian should both die before E. & Patterson, leaving no issue alive, then said interest of Luella & Lillian to descend to my daughter E. & Patterson. And in the event either one of said children (Luella & Lillian), shall die before E. & Patterson leaving Luella or Lillian alive, then of the deceased child leaves no issue alive, her interest shall descend to her surviving sister and E. & Patterson equally and absolutely. And in the event E. & Patterson, Luella & Lillian shall sell and dispose of said lot and its improvements, then I will and bequeath and direct that out of the proceeds of the sale, that my son Edward Jacob be paid the sum of Two hundred Dollars ($200.00), I hereby appoint my daughter E. & Patterson my Executor and request the Hon. County Court to permit her to qualify without giving bond with security, hereby revoking and declaring void all former wills heretofore made by me.

Self
will

I Albert C. Grubbsfield of the County of Henderson in the State of Kentucky do make, constitute and ordain this my last and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say: I am 1st Single and do hereby direct that all my just debts shall be paid as soon as practicable. I am 2nd I will and bequeath to my son Albert Grubbsfield Two Hundred Dollars to be used by me Executor in completing his education. Having expended at least that amount on my two oldest children, I do this in justice to him. I am 3rd I will and direct that the remainder of my estate both real, personal and mixed shall be equally divided between my wife Mary J. Grubbsfield, my daughter Fanny L. Grubbsfield and my two sons James Stephen Grubbsfield and Albert Grubbsfield. I am 4th I do hereby nominate and appoint my dear wife Fanny J. Grubbsfield Executor of this my last Will and Testament and direct that she shall advance to my daughter Fanny L. Grubbsfield Five Hundred Dollars in her case she want it and to my son James Stephen Grubbsfield the like sum ($500.00) when he arrives at the age of 21 years. The balance of my estate I wish kept together for the benefit of all my family but I wish my said Executor at any time to make such advances to either of my children as she may think advisable and she is hereby empowered to do so. I am 5th I will and direct that no one be required of my said Executor by the Court on her's making as much. Christ Church, Warren, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of July 1868.

I read and acknowledged in the presence of J. H. Newman
P. C. Long

State of Kentucky, 2000

Henderson County 3 August County Court 1870 Special Term 26th day.

This day a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. C. Grubbsfield was produced and proven in open Court to be the last Will and Testament of said Grubbsfield, by the evidence of J. H. Newman one of the subscribing witnesses of the said Will, the other witness P. C. Long being dead. Said Will being proved that said Will was signed and published in his full mind and in the presence of the other subscribing witness, to said paper as the last Will and Testament of said Grubbsfield, and was signed by him, and the other subscribing witness, in the presence and at the request of said Grubbsfield and in the presence of each other. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper is the true last Will and Testament of said A. C. Grubbsfield and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done accordingly.
