Edmund Robertson
 Will.

I Edmund Robertson do make this my last Will & Testament in form & manner following: I wish my Mother to have & to hold enough of the house which she now occupies with the Out house attached thereto & the garden (exclusive of the farm) also the woman Jane & her children now her possession during her life, and I wish my Aunt Nancy Johnson to be with her. - Secondly, I will the entire residue of my Estate and the loan to my Mother, after her death, after paying my just debts to my wife Sophia J. Robertson during her natural life or widowhood, and I desire that my Estate be kept together as much as possible. - I wish her husband to loan to the children, as they become of age or marry off, such property as may seem fit & proper, and at her death, I wish my Estate to be equally divided between my children then living. But should any of my children die before that time leaves children, that such children to receive the portion to which their parent would be entitled if living. - I desire that my wife have discretionary power to manage my Estate in such manner as she may deem best for the interest of the family by & with the consent & advice of Jas. D. Hatchett & my brother George Robertson. - In the event of the death of my wife, I wish her dower allotted in the Estate & the residue of my Estate then to pass to the hands of the said Jas. D. Hatchett & Geo. Robertson for the benefit of my children, and to be divided among them as before directed, but upon them severally attaining the age of twenty one years. - Should any portion of my Estate pass to the hands of the said J. D. Hatchett & Geo. Robertson or either of them as before stated, I wish them or either of them to have the like discretionary power herein before granted to my wife to manage the same, as they may see best for the interest of the children, and not to be required to be governed thereby by law, as I do not wish the negroes to be hired out, or the lands rented on if it can well be avoided. - Lastly I hereby nominate & appoint my wife Sophia J. Robertson, my brother Geo. Robertson & Jas. D. Hatchett Executors & Records
