

BOOK C PAGE 292
 all expenses and all other just claims against me shall be paid

2d. I leave to my wife, Mary Ann, Gundry during her natural life all the property, both real and personal that I may die possessed of, after the payment of my just debts, to be used by her as she may think best for her use and comfort 3d. After the death of my wife I give and bequeath to my son William H. Gundry and to his wife and children all the property real and personal which I owned to my wife at above. Witness my hand and seal this 10th day of July 1871.

Witness
 R. B. Matthews
 William Canning.
 State of Kentucky 38th
 Henderson County

Subscribed and sworn to before me, October Term 1871. (26th day)
 On this day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of William H. Gundry deceased was produced in a court and by the evidence of R. B. Matthews and Wm. Canning, both being witnesses thereto, as proved according to law, it is therefore adjudged that the said paper is the true last will and testament of said Gundry deceased, and ordered to be recorded, which is done accordingly.
 Book D page 71.

Alfred E. Walker Secy
 By John Adams DC

I, Albert Ash in the name of the Father of all I, Albert Ash do make and publish my last will and testament.

1st. I give and devise to my beloved wife Mary J. Ash all and any of my personal household goods
 2d. And I hereby nominate my esteemed friend William Shelley executor of this my last will
 3d. I direct that he the said executor shall sell all my personal property and collect all of my said standing debts, and out of the proceeds pay all of my indebtedness, and the remainder to be kept at interest, and the interest and principal to be paid to my beloved wife in such sums and at such times as may be needed for the support of herself and my three minor sons and for their education.

Witness my hand and seal this 10th day of August 1871. J. E. Mimick
 David Whitstone

State of Kentucky 38th
 Henderson County
 Subscribed and sworn to before me, October Term 1871. (26th day)
 On this day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Albert Ash deceased, was produced in open court and by the evidence of J. E. Mimick and David Whitstone subscribing witnesses thereto, it is therefore adjudged that the said paper is the true last will and testament of the said Albert Ash deceased, and ordered to be recorded which is here done accordingly.

 Under Book D page 68.

Alfred E. Walker Secy
 By John Adams DC

Eliza Walker in the name of God Amen I, Eliza Walker of the County of Henderson State of Kentucky, being in good bodily health, and of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the frailty and uncertainty of human life, and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs, and directing how the estate which I have pleased God to bless me shall be disposed of after my decease, while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last will, and testament hereby revoking and making null and void all other last wills and testaments by me heretofore made, and first I commend my immortal soul to him who gave it, and body to the earth whither I shall be hurried with little expense of solicitation by my executor herein after named.

Second: My will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my executor herein after named be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as shall by him be found convenient.

Third: I give and bequeath to my sister Catherine Blake, and her heirs forever my undivided interest in a tract of land that belonged to my father, and in which Thomas Blake now lives.

Fourth: I give and bequeath to my niece Eliza W. Blake and her heirs forever two hundred dollars in money.

Fifth: I give and bequeath to my niece Elizabeth Kate Baker and her heirs forever two hundred dollars in money.
 Sixth: I give and bequeath to my niece Georgiana Walker daughter of William A. Walker six hundred dollars in money to her heirs forever.

Seventh: I do constitute and appoint my Brother-in-law Thomas Blake sole executor of this my last will and testament, and my will is that I do expressly declare that my said executor shall not be charged with or accountable for more of the said said money or money estate than he shall actually receive or shall come to his hands by virtue of this my last will, or with or for any loss which shall happen of this said money or estate as as such loss happen with out his will, fault, neglect, and except. And also that I shall be lawfully for him my executor in the final place out of said money to discharge and reimburse himself all such losses, costs, charges and expenses as he shall sustain, expend or be put unto for or my reason of the performance of this my last will and testament or the management or execution thereof or any other things in anywise appertaining thereto.

In testimony whereof I have to my hand and seal, and published this my last will and testament in the presence of the witnesses named below this twenty fourth day of October 1860.

George Bell } witnesses
R. B. Smith }

Elvira Walker

State of Kentucky

Davidson County } County Court, Oct Term 1871. (26th day)

On this day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Elvira Walker dec'd was produced in open court, and by the evidence of George Bell and R. B. Smith, subscribing witnesses thereto, approved according to law, it is therefore adjudged that the said paper is the true last will and testament of said Walker dec'd. And ordered to be recorded. Which is hereby done.

Book D page 71. Attest J. E. Walker clerk

By John Adams D.C.

Davidson County Ky 19 March 1866.

I William Halden Sir of the County aforesaid do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others.

I wish my just debts and funeral expenses paid.

I give and bequeath to my wife Elvira Halden all of my estate that may remain after my funeral expenses and debts are paid, to have and to hold during her life, and in the event that any part of my estate while in her hands should be liable to go to waste or become burdensome to her, I wish my Executors to have the power to sell such property or let the children theirs have the same at what it may be worth, and at her death an equal division of my estate to take place between my children as hereinafter provided.

I desire that what money and property that be left at the death of my wife remain in the hands of my executors for the purpose of supporting and educating each of my children as may not be of age until the youngest child become of age or married. I desire likewise that my child or that are of age or married at the death of their mother may be allowed to have a division of my estate provided they are willing to leave in the hands of my executor as much money or property as will be sufficient to raise and educate each of the children as are not of age, over and above their equal portion, and if there is a remainder of such funds in the hands of the Executors after the infant heirs is of age or married I wish the same equally divided amongst my children or their heirs.

I desire likewise of making an equal division of my estate amongst my children or their heirs at the death of my wife or afterwards as hereinbefore provided, I would here state that the amount that I have given each of my children, and I desire that in the division that each of my children or their heirs receive an amount equal to what the one that has received the most has had.

They have each one received as follows, I William a horse, saddle &c worth fifty eight dollars and a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars, Elvira Halden, a more worth fifty dollars and a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars, Elizabeth Halden fifty dollars worth of furniture and a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars, Harriet Halden a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars, H. Halden a horse, saddle &c worth fifty eight dollars and a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars, Nathan Halden a horse, saddle &c worth fifty eight dollars, Nancy Comer a bed and furniture worth twelve dollars.

I to James I Halden I have given a horse, saddle &c worth twenty three dollars.

I desire my wife or executors when my daughters or any of them marry which is single at my death to give them if they have it to give from the estate such rights as my other children have received.

I desire that my dear woman Maria, on a division of my estate be allowed to share among my children which one she will prefer to live with and that child to take said share at whatever she may be appraised at by men appointed for that purpose.

I hereby appoint my friend Sam Johnson my Executor with full power to carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament in case of his death or inability, to attend to the business I appoint my friend James Priest my Executor. In testimony whereof I have hereunto assigned my name and set my seal this day and date above written. Thomas McFarland } William Halden }
Nancy I Priest }

State of Kentucky

Davidson County Court } August 26th 1871

This day a paper purporting to be the last will & testament of William Halden dec'd was produced in Court & by the oath of Thomas McFarland & Nancy I Priest subscribing witnesses thereto, proved according to law, it is therefore adjudged to be the true last will & testament of said Halden and as such, ordered to be recorded, which is accordingly done.

J. E. Walker Clerk

By J. E. Walker

This is to certify that I have this day made my wife the 31 day of January 1872 as jointed my wife Mary Halden to have the house and lot and the stable and all now in the name of Halden, and also to have the benefit of the note of Green Thomas & in my debt is paid, the house and lot in Mount Vernon is to be divided between the other heirs, and she has to have the benefit of the house hold and the furniture, and is to hold in her possession the husband in stock cattle and horses and all other notes in her possession. Let William and Elvira Halden is to have the lot, farm between them, Elvira Halden is not to have any share but my wife.

I witness my hand &c

Attest J. E. Walker }
Davidson County Court } February Term 1872. (2nd day)

I appear a paper purporting to be the last will & testament of William Halden dec'd was produced in Court, and by the evidence of J. E. Walker, James Halden, William Halden and in legal array, proved to be in fact and signature the hand wrote of said Halden, and is therefore adjudged to be the true last will & testament of said Halden, and as such, ordered to be recorded, which is accordingly done.