Wm. H. Agnew will

In the name of God Amen. This my last Will and Testament after commending my soul to God & my body to dust from whence it came & after paying all my just debts. I bequeath to my beloved wife to be used in any way that she may think best for her good & my children as my estate is so small I only wish this recorded & my wife held to no dower, every thing belonging to my little estate that she may move it with her to any County or State that she may think best to move to make sale or not just as she thinks best, for her to have uncontricted control of every thing belonging thereto for her to have the control of my children that I live with her so long as she can manage or take care of them the same are so small against me. I live it with my wife to settle them the best way the Court of my estate being weak in body but of sound mind I have no doubt my hands from 27th 1846

Wm. Brand
will

In the name of God Amen. I William Brand of Henderson County and State of Kentucky being of sound and disposing mind and memory for which I thank my God, but in a weak and low state of health, telling to mind the great uncertainty of life and wishing to dispose of what little worldly property and estate with which it has pleased God to bless me, do make and appoint this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form following: In the first place I give and bequeath to my dear wife Ann Brand during her natural life or widowhood two hundred acres of the tract of land whereon I live to be laid off on that end or side of the tract not to and adjoining Knoblick. Secondly I give and bequeath to my two sons Edmon and Arthur Brand and to my two daughters Winifred Tate and Elizabeth Arvile children by my first wife one dollar a piece or to each of them. Item I give and bequeath to my son William Brand a horse, saddle and bridle. I also leave to my son George Washington when he arrives to his brother Williams present age a horse and bridle. Item I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Jones the manure and soil which she claims and which I have heretofore given her by deed.
