In the Name of God Amen. I James W. Marshall of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following - I devise and bequeath to my brother Bennett G. Marshall, my executor herein named, all my Estate real, personal and mixed, all my money, choses in action and every species of property whatsoever, In Trust to sell the same, to receive the money and collect the choses in action, and after the payment of all my just debts, to divide the proceeds arising from the sale of my said Estate and Collection of money equally between my son William B. Marshall and my beloved wife Mary B. Marshall with this proviso: however, that the said Bennett G. Marshall who is herein also appointed guardian of my son William B. Marshall, shall hold that portion of my Estate devised to my son William B. Marshall until my said son shall attain the age of twenty one years, I hereby constitute and appoint my brother Bennett G. Marshall guardian of my son William B. Marshall until my said son shall attain the age of twenty one years, and I hereby devise and bequeath to my said Brother Bennett G. Marshall all the Estate and property or the money arising from the sale of the same herein devised and bequeathed to my said son William B. Marshall, in trust for the support, maintenance and education of my said son William B. Marshall, until my said son shall attain the age of twenty one years, at which time my said son is to receive all the estate, property and money herein devised or bequeathed to him, and upon the forthwith trust and condition that in case my said son William B. Marshall shall depart this life without leaving a child or children living at the time of his death, then and in that case my brother Bennett G. Marshall is to divide all the estate, property and money with the profits herein devised and bequeathed to my said son William B. Marshall equally between my said brother Bennett G. Marshall, my sisters Lucy G. Hopkins and Tabitha Anderson, and my mother Lucy Marshall or to the children of each of them as shall die before the death of my said son, giving to the child or children of such as may die the share of their deceased parent in my will and done forth is that my executor Bennett G. Marshall shall not under the power herein before given to him sell a negro girl named Annica, but that said negro girl Annica shall be valued by two persons chosen by said Bennett G. Marshall and my wife or their umpire, and the value of said negro girl thus ascertained shall be deducted from the share of my estate devised and bequeathed to my said wife, and with this condition I hereby devise the said negro girl Annica to my said wife Mary B. Marshall to her and her heirs forever.

Lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my brother Bennett G. Marshall sole executor of this my last will and testament, hereby vesting my said executor with full power and authority to sell and convey the property and estate herein devised to him, and to grant receipts and acquittances for the purchase money as herein before directed, and with full power and authority to execute all the trusts herein conferred to him. I hereby revoke all wills and testaments heretofore made by me.

Harmon Blam
Will

I Harmon Blam of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky do make & ordain this my last will and testament in manner following to wit - I desire that all my just debt be first paid. I give to my beloved wife Nancy Blam the place on which I reside as also one third of the Negroes, money and personal effects of every kind whatsoever during her widowhood - I give bequeath & devise all the residue of my estate real, personal and mixed to my children, Will D., John, Abram, Frances, Martha, Lucinda, Drue and Repts Blam to be equally divided among them, except my son Repts to whom I give $1000 more than the rest, as he has been laboring under some bodily infirmity. And it is my will & desire that my children above named as they respectively become of age or marry shall have their part or portion of my estate above described to them, laid off & appraised to them by Commissioners to be appointed by the County Court, - I wish the tract of land or the proceeds thereof, as well as the other property devised to my wife, to be equally divided among my children above named at her death. If any of my children above named, should die without having children, it is my will & desire, that the share or portion of their dying shall be equally divided among the surviving brothers & sisters. And it is further my will & desire that my property be kept together by my wife and that my family be supported, and the youngest children educated out of the proceeds - I hereby appoint my wife Guardian of my children and desire that she will allow to each as they arrive at the age of 21 years their several portions of my estate as above provided. I hereby appoint my wife sole executrix of this my last will and testament and desire that she shall not be required to give bond or any security as such executrix, and also desire that no sale be made of any of my property unless my said wife shall deem it expedient to sell such of the perishable property as she shall deem necessary and proper - In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 19th day of May 1838
