testified that he was the person by name who subscribed the Will of George Phillip Beck dec'd and that the Estate Agent Phillip Beck signed and acknowledged it as executor of said John O. Cheney as his last Will and Testament, and that witness John O. Cheney and J. C. Staples signed said Will as witnesses at the request of George Phillip Beck and in his presence and in the presence of each other that said George Phillip Beck was at the time of signing and publishing said Will of sound mind and disposing memory. The execution of said Will having been heretofore testified to by J. C. Staples the other subscribing witness thereto in open Court according to law, it is adjudged that said instrument is the true last Will and Testament of said George Phillip Beck dec'd and is to be recorded as such, and thereupon the same is with this certificate truly recorded in my office.

James M. Powell
Will

Know Ye all Men: That I James M. Powell of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being healthy in body and sound of mind and twenty one years of age, do of my own free will and a cordial heart make and publish this my last Will and Testament, that after the payment of all my just debts and necessary funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to my wife Matilda A. Powell the funds on which I now live living and being in the County and State aforesaid, and in the district of Kentucky, together with the dwelling and out houses, the house hold and kitchen furniture, and all the stock such as horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep &c Now then, as to me belonging at the time of my death with the provisions, provisions tools and utensils thereto belonging or is anywise appertaining to have and to hold for her individual use and profit forever or to dispose of in such ways and manners as to her seemed best next, I give to my two daughters Bridget Cheeston and Maria Hopkins Powell each, Five hundred Dollars in money. The entire balance of my whole estate both real and personal, I give to be divided equally between all my children viz: Elizabeth Ann Lutz Matilda A. Bagwell, Mary F. Higgins, John Wiley Powell, Bridget Cheeston Powell and Maria Hopkins Powell. To have and to hold to them and their heirs or assigns forever, In consideration of the natural love and affection I have and feel for my wife and children, I have then given and bequeathed to them my whole estate, and hereby request and wish that my brother Elias D. Powell and Minnie L. Powell for as long as I can sustain the highest regard, shall undertake to publish and execute the provisions of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto signed and sealed this instrument, this twelfth day of March A.D. 1872, and in the presence of three witnesses do hereby declare and publish the same as my voluntary act and deed, to wit: me

Walter Olow
Will

I Walter Olow of the City of Henderson State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory but in feeble health, thinking that my term of life is uncertain and being about to travel in some of that in search of that Bodily vigor which I may never again be able to make this my last Will and Testament making all others by me previously made void. First In the event of my death I wish my said Will in a plain respectable manner and all my just debts paid Second I Will and choose to my wife Kate Olow one third of all my property real and personal for her natural life the same to go to my children at my death Third I will and devise to my children and heirs of my Body begotten all my property after my just debts are paid and provided Subject only to the support, bring up and my wife and I wish the same to be held managed and controlled for their maintenance and education by their Guardian and my Executors hereinafter named until my youngest child shall come at the age of twenty one year, when I wish the same to be equally divided between them Fourth I nominate and appoint as Guardian of my children and Executor of this my last Will and Testament my wife Kate Olow, desiring that no bond be required of her for the performance of her duties as such and I entrust upon her a pure and careful management of my property and children and trust that she will give my children as good an education as my estate will permit of, bringing them up in an economical manner so as to be qualified for the serious and sacred duties of life and make them good and useful members of society.

In Testimony whereof I have signed my hand and hereto affixed this 30th day of June 1874

Walter Olow
