

John Harrison
Will

BOOK PAGE 10

The Last Will and Testament of John Harrison of Henderson
County State of Kentucky, I John Harrison Considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory (blessed be almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following (that is to say) First I give, and bequeath unto my beloved wife Charity Harrison all my land estate where I now at present live in Henderson County, N. W. of Green River to have and to hold to during his natural life, on Condition she lives until my youngest son John M. Harrison is twenty one years of age. If she should live longer she still continues in possession of said land. But if she then thinks best to let said land be sold, she may let them sell it. I also give and bequeath to her after paying my funeral charges and all other just debts, And lastly to all the rest, residue and remainder of my other lands and personal estate, goods and chattels of what kind and nature so ever, they may be, to have and to hold the same during her natural life. I give and bequeath unto my six children that is now living the children of my last wife, after my wife's death all my land estate that I am now in possession of, is then to be sold and equally divided amongst and between them all, and also all my personal estate, goods and chattels of what kind and nature they may be to be sold, and also divided between them equally, that is to say, Elizabeth H. Harrison lately, Elizabeth H. Harden, Samuel G. Harrison, Martha E. Harrison, Lucy T. Harrison, Alfred H. Harrison and John M. Harrison all living heirs of the above named John Harrison in this his last Will and Testament - I also give and bequeath to Sarah B. Harrison ten dollars for her share of one portion in my debt left to my wife and children, and further bind my wife and all the rest of my lawful heirs, to take good care and do to Sarah B. Harrison that she does not come to want or suffering for any thing to make her reasonably comfortable, while she may think proper, or see fit to stay with them - this was if she gets them with out a good cause they are to be no longer bound to take care of her. - I do hereby appoint my wife Charity Harrison sole executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former will by me made - In Witness where of I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this twenty second day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty five!

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the said named John Harrison to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator

George Vanada
Geo. McCormick
Marlin Vanada

John H. Harrison
marks

State of Kentucky, 2d. December County Court 1835
Henderson County

This last Will and Testament of John Harrison dec'd was produced in Court, and proved according to law, by the oaths of George Vanada, George McCormick, and Marlin Vanada subscribing witnesses thereto, a Sherriff ordered to be recorded. (See order Book 2 page 207) Attest Will J. Allison CLK

John Reader
Will

BOOK PAGE 11

I Jehu Reader of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being in Common health of body, of sound mind and disposing memory, but knowing that it is appointed of all mankind once to die, do make my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following viz:

Item 1st I give and bequeath to my son John Reader the tract of land on which he the said John now resides, lying on the brassy fork of Canoe Creek 300 acres more or less, there has been a division line made by myself and John Reader which is to be added to the tract of land on which I now live

I also devise to my said son John the following slaves for life which he now has in his possession to wit: John, Alfred, and Priscilla and all her increase slaves for life, and what other property he has now in his possession.

Item 2^d I give and bequeath to my daughter Matilda H. Hoff to her and her legal children or the legal issue of her body the following property two negro girls called and known by the name of Maryann & Patsy and their increase to the said Matilda & her children, slaves for life, with what other other property she has now in her possession which I gave her.

Item 3^d I give and bequeath to my son William Reader a tract of land which I purchased of John Hancock containing One hundred and eight acres more or less, lying on the waters of Canoe Creek, also a negro boy by the name of Sphenkel 1st of this, and a negro girl by the name of Elvira her & her increase, Bed and furniture, a young mare, Cow and Calf, two Sows and pigs.

Item 4th I give and bequeath to my daughter Sally Wall who is married with Ottoway Wall, and her legal children, or the issue of her body the following property a negro girl by the name of Arrena, One by the name of Purline, them and their increase to the said Sally and the legal children of her body slaves for life, with all the other property which I have previously given her, and which she has in her possession.

Item 5th I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucy E. Fox who is intermarried with William Fox, and her children, or the legal issue of her body, the following property, to wit: One negro girl by the name of Margaret, and another by the name of Fernelia, and their increase to the said Lucy and the legal children of her body slaves for life, with all the other property which she has in her possession.

Item 6th I give and bequeath to my son Jehu M. Reader the tract of land on which I now reside, containing three hundred acres more or less, I have made an agreed upon line between the tract of land willed to my son John and the one willed to my son Jehu M. in which division line, I have added a small part to the tract I now devise to the said Jehu M. Reader, my son Jehu M. is now under age I therefore will not name the negro boy and girl, which he is to have, but leave it to his choice and discretion to select one boy and one girl out of eight which is from Ellis Dow, when he arrives to the age of twenty one. I also devise to Jehu M. One Horse out of my estate which he may make choice of when he arrives to the age twenty one, One Bed and furniture, One Cow and Calf, two Sows and pigs.

It is my will and desire that if any of my children herein before mentioned should die and leave no legal issue of their body, that then and in that case, the property willed to her or him shall return and revert back to the survivor or survivors of them. As I and my wife are both living It is therefore my wish, desire and will that neither division shall take place during the life of me or my wife, and if my wife should outlive me