I will also that my wife shall have a home and support until she dies or marries. Wherefore I will and desire that my Executors shall provide and keep a sufficient fund for these purposes and apply it as conveniently as need requires. And in this manner I direct that in case my wife dies or leaves the place mentioned in Item 10, that they make if they can some other practical arrangement, whereby a suitable home as well as support may be furnished and secured to said children and wife. Item 12. Whereas I made a promise to each of my sons, that whenever of them should abstain from the use of ardent spirits and of slaves until their majority, I would give them five hundred dollars a year and would from one said article, when I will and direct my Executors to carry this arrangement into full effect, with respect to my son aiming error or failure here to hope that they will not only rightfully claim and receive said articles but will continue such abstinence all the rest of their lives. Item 13. I have advanced to my three children, Smith, William and Henry, the sum of Five thousand Dollars each, which sums are to be subordinated without interest from their respective shares of my estate when distribution is had, and in like manner, I now will and direct that my Executors make advancement of a like sum to each of my remaining children, as they actually come of age or marry and desire it. - Item 14. I will direct and empower my Executors to sell and convey my lands in Ohio and Arkansas, as soon as they can prudently do so, but the time and terms are left to their sound discretion, and my said Executors may sell and convey any other of my lands should they deem for the best interest and welfare of my children to do so. The sum of one thousand dollars in Item 13 is not to be paid however until my wife dies, marries or abandons it. Item 16. The monies and lands are left to the discretion of Executors. I would admonish them to look to equity in the investments rather than to the amount of the interest. - Item 18. I will and direct that my youngest child, being child arriving at age or marriage, then a final distribution of all my estate and effects must be made and had among all my children, and the respective shares of each of them as may then be due by shares equally, but at any time when my Executors may consent to my hopes and by petition paid in irreparable, circumstances and against the interest of children, longer to keep the property together they may cause the above mentioned final distribution to take place, but in such case there must be some legal competent person to see to and take charge of the shares of those of the distributees who may be then minors, and such minors (being my children) must receive an annual sum and above their equal share sufficient to support and educate them until their arrival at age according to the scheme herein before set forth.
