 2d Aug 1879 Term 1879-80

This day of paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of James Kirkpatrick was produced in Court, sworn according to law by the testimony of J. M. Wellingham and Peter Baker subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore adjudged to be the true Last Will and Testament of said Kirkpatrick and as such is ordered to be recorded which is hereto accordingly attest
 By J. C. James
 Clerk

Joseph Talmage Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the nineteenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine Joseph Talmage an executor named in the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Talmage late of the County of New York deceased appeared in open Court before Geo. W. Baker Surrogate of the County of New York and made application to have the said last will and testament and codicil thereto, which relates to both real and personal estate proved, and on such application the Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who were the witnesses and one of them of said deceased what their respective residences, and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a relation directed to said widow, only heirs and next of kin by the respective names, stating their places of abode, requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at his office in the City of New York on the twenty-third day of November then next to attend the probate of said Will and afterwards to sit on the twenty-third day of November, satisfactory evidence to be offered was adduced and presented to said Surrogate of the solemnity of the relation within and as prescribed by law. In being ascertained on the said day or before any proceedings were taken upon the said Will that several of the heirs and next of kin were minors having no general guardian residing in the State of New York a special guardian was appointed in due form of law to take care of their interests in the matter of proving said Will by an order duly returned for that purpose by said Surrogate, and on that day no one appearing to oppose the probate of said Will, said proceedings were thereupon had afterwards that said Surrogate took the proofs of said Will hereinafter set forth, and when this twenty-third day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, he adjudged said Will and codicil thereto to be a valid Will of real and personal estate, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said Last Will and Testament and proofs are as follows, that is to say:

First I will and direct all my just debts and funeral charges and expenses to be paid by my Executors out of my personal estate. Second I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary all and whole picture furniture wearing apparel horses carriages harness and family stores. Third, subject to the power of said hereinafter mentioned James and devise to my beloved wife for and during her natural life, all my real estate, with the right to collect and enjoy the rents, issues and profits thereof during her life after the death of my wife, James and devise thereof real estate to my children, share and share alike. Should either of my children die before my wife, leaving lawful issue then or her survivors, James and devise to each issue such share thereof as the parent of such issue would of living have taken. The above devise is not to include real estate owned and held by me with my copartners. Fourth, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Fannie Talmage, one of my personal estate the sum of One Thousand and dollars and do constitute, and appoint her to be the guardian of each of my minor children, with all the powers of testamentary guardian in such cases.
 Fifth, All the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate, real and personal I give and devise and bequeath to my children, share and share alike, her heirs and assigns forever. Sixth, I give and grant to my Executors full power and I do hereby authorize and empower them at and unto to sell and convey the whole or any part of my real estate, except such interest in real estate owned by me with my copartners, at public or private sale for the best price they can obtain for the same, the proceeds thereof to be by them invested on bond and with good and approved real estate, and to divide the amount, subject to the right of the said Fannie Talmage, or her heirs, the income thereof to be paid over to my wife during her natural life in semi annual payments and the principal sum upon her death to be divided among my children share and share alike. Seventh, Whereas, I am now and have been for many years past a copartner in the firm of Talmage and which firm is doing business under various styles, it is my will that my Executors shall after my death represent my interest in said copartnership and shall to all intents and purposes carry on said copartnership provided for in said articles. It being my wish that the business of said copartnership shall not be terminated by my death, but that the same shall continue to be prosecuted by the remaining partners and by my Executors in the same and for the purpose and on the conditions in the said articles. Lastly, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my son-in-law Morris Rand as Executor and my wife Fannie Talmage of this my last Will and Testament, her by her making it will be her duty to make in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this nineteenth day of June, One Thousand eight hundred

Joseph Fatman 39

Surrogate Court, County of New York.

In the matter of the last will and testament of Joseph Fatman, deceased, as a will of real and personal estate.

Examination of Witnesses, sworn and examined in the above entitled matter.

County of New York to-wit: Rufus G. Beardslee of the City of New York being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled matter, and examined on behalf of the applicant to prove said will says: I was well acquainted with Joseph Fatman, now deceased. I know the above named decedent for ten years upwards before his death. The subscription of the name of said decedent to the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as his last will and testament, and bearing date the nineteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, was made at the decedent's City of New York in the presence of myself, Hooper C. Van Vorst, the other subscribing witnesses. At the time of such subscription, the said decedent declared the said instrument to be his last will and testament, and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of said instrument at the request of said decedent, and in his presence. He is then at the time of so executing said instrument, was upwards of the age of twenty-one years, and of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, or in any respect incompetent to devise real estate. I also saw said Hooper C. Van Vorst, the other attesting witnesses sign his name as a witness at the end of said will, and know that he did so at the request of said decedent and in his presence. Sworn this 23 day of November 1869 before me.
