Codicil

In Item the third of the foregoing will, I gave & bequeathed to my daughter Ellen, my negro girl Mariak, and her increase during her natural life, and to revert back to all my children. I do hereby revoke that part of said Item, giving my daughter Sally an equal share with my other children and do hereby bequeath, that, the aforesaid Mariak, with her increase, and all other property that may go to my daughter Ellen by this will at her death, without leaving children. Shall return to my daughter Poley and my sons Robert Thomas and John, and to their heirs, equally. In Item the fifth of the foregoing will, I gave and bequeathed to my son Thomas, my negro boy Will, and negro girl Dury. I do hereby revoke that part of said Item, giving him said Lucy and do give and bequeath to him my negro girl Dinah in his stead. I do hereby revoke that part of said Item, giving my daughter Poley and my son John, the property of my son Thomas in case of his decease without children, and do hereby give to him, and his heirs forever, all that I have now, and previously willed him, according to the provision of this article of the Codicil to my last will and Testament. The eighth and ninth Items of this my will, I do hereby revoke and declare null and void. The eighth and ninth Items I do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Poley one hundred acres of land on the north end of the farm as in my possession, and the old part of the house now occupied by my family during his life so long as she remains single, but in case of her death or marriage, the aforesaid land and house, I do hereby give and bequeath to my son Thomas and his heirs forever. The remainder of my land now or hereafter I do hereby give and bequeath to my son Thomas his heirs and assigns forever. I do hereby revoke that part of Item tenth relating to my wife (now deceased) and do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Poley all the property therein specified, during her natural life, in case of her decease without children, living, all the said property is to be divided equally between my sons Robert, Thomas, and John except the negro girl Emma and her increase, whom she may dispose of by will, if she choose at her death, and if she do not, the said Emma and her increase is to be divided equally among my three sons above mentioned. I Joseph D. McFarland of Henderson County of said state and disposing memory, do declare the above to be the Codicil to my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I hereunto affix my hand and seal this 1st day of November 1840
