

W. H. Ingram
Will

BOOK C
In the Name of God Amen. I, Nathl. H. Ingram of the County of Henderson, and State of Kentucky, being low in health, but of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner & form following to-wit: First, It is my will & desire that my property shall be kept together, and with this view I do hereby give to my wife Jane H. Ingram all my property and Estate of every description (except my in-laws stock interest in the mercantile firm of Wilson & Ingram) during her natural life, or widowhood, subject to the conditions herein after mentioned. It is further my will & desire that my wife & children continue to dwell together as they do at present, and have a common support from the proceeds profits of my Estate, until my children choose to withdraw & set up for themselves, And it is my wish & desire I do hereby direct my wife Jane to pay to each of my children the sum of Two thousand dollars at such times as they may require it, (and as she in her discretion may deem right and proper, for building or other useful purposes) - I give and bequeath to each of my youngest daughters, Louisa & Jane the sum of One hundred dollars & direct my wife to pay the same to them, to buy them each a gold watch, or any thing else they may prefer.

I do hereby give to my said wife Jane full power & authority to sell and convey any of my property real or personal, willed to her as above, except my household containing 24 asses, my tract of land called the "Briar patch" bought of David L. Wilson, and 100 acres of land near Mr. Seafors bought of Smith - and that the proceeds of any property she may sell in other property. And if my wife & children shall, at any time, deem it expedient, she may cause a street to be laid out and opened from back street to the corner of the lot belonging to her as a street back through the Ten acre lot of which it is a part, and divide the ground on the side next to Joel Lamberts into lots of suitable and convenient size & sell the same. - With regard to my part of the stock in the firm of Wilson & Ingram I give & bequeath the use of the stock to my son William for & during the space and term of five years, and it is my wish & desire that my son William continue in the firm of Wilson & Ingram in my place & stead for the said term of five years after my death. - It is further my will and desire, that my wife Jane, out of the property willed to her during life as hereinbefore stated, pay all just debts that I may be owing & complete the education of my youngest children. - It is further my will & desire, that at the death of my said wife Jane, all my Estate real & personal, remaining after the payment of the specific legacies above mentioned & the payment of all debts and necessary & proper expenses of the family, be equally divided among my six children, namely, William, Louisa, Matt, Jane and James. And lastly, I do hereby appoint my son in law Robt. P. Lott, & my son William Ingram, Executors of this my last Will & Testament, and also my two sons Matt & James when they become of age. - I hereby revoke & annul every other Will by me heretofore made & declare this to be my last Will & Testament. - In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name & affixed my seal, at my own house in the County of Henderson this 27th day of November A.D. 1850.
