James M. Cornell
Will

Know Ye all Men: That I James M. Cornell of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being healthy in body and sound of mind and twenty one years of age, do of my own free will and a cordial heart make and publish this my last Will and Testament, that after the payment of all my just debts and necessary funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to my wife Matilda A. Cornell the funds on which I now live living and being in the County and State aforesaid, and in the district of Kentucky, together with the dwelling and out houses, the house hold and kitchen furniture, and all the stock such as horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep &c Now then, as to me belonging at the time of my death with the provisions, provisions tools and utensils thereto belonging or is anywise appertaining to have and to hold for her individual use and profit forever or to dispose of in such ways and manners as to her seemed best next, I give to my two daughters Bridget Cheeston and Maria Hopkins Cornell each, Five hundred Dollars in money. The entire balance of my whole estate both real and personal, I give to be divided equally between all my children viz: Elizabeth Ann Lutz Matilda A. Bagwell, Mary F. Higgins, John Wiley Cornell, Bridget Cheeston Cornell and Maria Hopkins Cornell, to have and to hold to them and their heirs or assigns forever, In consideration of the natural love and affection I have and feel for my wife and children, I have then given and bequeathed to them my whole estate, and hereby request and wish that my brother Elias D. Cornell and Minnie L. Cornell for as long as I can maintain the highest regard, shall undertake to publish and execute the provisions of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto signed and sealed this instrument, this twelfth day of March A.D. 1872, and in the presence of three witnesses do hereby declare and publish the same as my voluntary act and deed, to wit: I do.
