Will

In the name of God Amen I Charles H. Hays of the City and County of Henderson and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory and appreciating the uncertainty of human life do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me in the words and figures following, To wit

1st I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Sarah Holloway Hays the home and lot now occupied by William Ingram as a Grocery Store on the corner above the Bank House - owned by her or her heirs in the City of Henderson together with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging to her and her heirs forever and it is my will and desire that in the distribution of my property among my children she be chargeable thereto for an advancement the sum of Four thousand dollar (Four) only

2nd I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah above named One negro woman now aged about twenty eight (28) years named "MARIA" (daughter of Charity) to her and her heirs forever. And it is my will and desire that she be chargeable thereto as an advancement the sum of Eight hundred dollar (800) only but it is expressly understood and conditioned in the above bequest that my said daughter shall either before or after marriage shall not sell alienate convey or otherwise dispose of or have power to do so the said home and lot or the said Maria Maria without the consent Concurrence and approval of my son Robert T. Hays but if she should deem to sell either or both and my said son Robert give his assent Ans.

thrusts and they or either of them are sold, then and in that event the proceeds of said sale or sales are to be and applied or reinvested under his control and direction in that way and manner which in his judgment seems the best for his interests

I further give and bequeath to my said daughter Sarah One net which I hold upon my son Robert S. Clapp for the sum of eight hundred and fifty ($850) dollars which shall be charged to her as an advancement, but as said net may be paid off and discharged in a short time, if not found among my papers at my death or delivered to her previous thereto it shall not be charged to her as above indicated

I at some time ago I purchased Stock in the Farmers Bank of Kentucky to the amount of Five hundred dollars and the same was entered upon the books of the Bank in the name of my beloved daughter Sarah. I hereby give and bequeath to the said amount of Stock lent to her and her heirs forever and it is my will and desire that she be not chargeable therefore in the distribution of my property

And lastly a untaxed, memorial of her Father's love (and of which no account is to be taken against her) I give and bequeath to my above named beloved daughter Sarah the Picture now in the Parlor of my house, and a miniature of myself painted by Williamson, which for some time has been and is yet in my possession

I give and bequeath to my son Robert Terry Clapp a portrait of myself now hanging in the Parlor of my house with the understanding that it remain in the possession of my wife Elizabeth so long as she may live; and as I have advanced to my said son Robert the sum of Five thousand four hundred ($5400) dollars it is my will and desire that in the distribution of my property he be chargeable with that amount

I give and bequeath to my son Owen Clapp the Gold watch which I now wear

It is my will and desire that my sons Owen Clapp and Hyman Dixon Clapp be educated out of the proceeds of my estate the Cost of such education of each respectively not to exceed the amount of One thousand dollars to Owen and the amount of Fifteen hundred to Hyman. But if they elect not to receive a liberal education, then and in that event the sum of One thousand dollars is to be paid to Owen out of my estate when he reaches the age of twenty three years, and is not to be charged against him in the distribution of my estate and the sum of Fifteen hundred dollars to Hyman upon the same terms and conditions and which is not to be charged against him in the distribution of my estate

My youngest children Owen Clapp and Hyman Dixon Clapp being yet in their minority and as the law makes ample provision for the widow and the next legitimate division of the estate of a decedent, I leave all the rest and residue of my estate, real personal and mixed to my wife Elizabeth and my children Sarah & Robert Owen & Hyman Clapp to be divided according to law

It is moreover my Will and desire that my beloved wife Elizabeth retain the use occupation and enjoyment of my Manions house up to its appointment during her life time, if she choose to do so, until she marries and that she have the use occupation and enjoyment of the Manions house & appurtenances exclusive of the interest which she has given her in my estate and this is not to be chargeable therefore

It is furthermore my Will and desire that my children shall have their homes in the said Manions house with my late wife Elizabeth until they marry or they wish to

I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Elizabeth and my son Robert S. Clapp executor of my last Will and desire that they be not required by the Court to give security as and so I deliver my share of I have let my hands and seal this 21st day of August 1855
