Item 4th I wish the children of my dear daughter Sarah Watson to receive their mother's share of my Estate, they to be charged in the division with the property herebefore advanced to their mother. Item 5th I wish and desire that my Estate be kept together some two or three years before having a division, if my Executors shall think it best to do so. Item 6th I wish my daughter Susan to be educated at the charge of my Estate, and not out of her share of the same. Item 7th I nominate and appoint my sons James & Landon White Executors of this my last will & testament, and pray the Court not to require them give security.
