

State of Kentucky }
Henderson County } 1st August County Court 1823

This last Will and Testament of George Brindley esq. was produced in Court, and read in open Court according to law, by the oaths of Thomas Gates, Gilbert H. Hamilton, and Samuel McCrary, three of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.
(See order book E page 137)

Attest Will D. Allison clk

W. H. H. H.
Will

In the Name of God Amen. I Moses McClure of the County of Henderson State of Kentucky, being weak in body, but of sound mind and disposing memory for which I thank God & calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly estate as it has pleased God to bless me with, I give & bequeath the same in the following manner to wit. I give & bequeath unto David McClure One Dollar. I give and bequeath unto John McClure One Dollar. I give and bequeath unto the heirs of Jacob H. Waller One Dollar. I give & bequeath unto Jacob Morgan's heirs One Dollar. I give & bequeath unto Alexander McClure One Dollar. I give & bequeath unto Rachel Marks One hundred fifty acres of land, which her Father gave her, known and designated as the Stone quarry tract lot. To have and to hold forever, and I also give and bequeath unto the said Rachel Marks the tract of land on which I now live, containing five hundred & thirty seven acres during her natural life. At her death I wish the said tract of Five hundred & thirty seven acres equally divided as number of acres, between Charles & Baker & Andrew & Baker, grand children of Rachel Marks & the children of Moses Baker & Leannah his wife. What to Baker's portion is to land off the long way at the lower end of that part, on which the school house now stands, which land I give & bequeath unto the said children forever. I also give and bequeath unto Rachel Marks all my stock of every kind, all my house hold & kitchen furniture & farming utensils to have and to hold forever. It is my will and desire that Rachel Marks at my death, have me decently buried. In testimony I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 11th day of September 1839 in presence of

Wm. Vincent Tapp
William Tapp
John Green

Moses McClure

State of Kentucky }
Henderson County } 1st August County Court 1843

This last Will and Testament of Moses McClure dec^d was proved in open Court according to law, by the oaths of John Green, Vincent Tapp and William Tapp subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.
(See order book E page 138)

Attest Will D. Allison clk

W. H. H. H.
Will

I Wesley Norman of Henderson county Kentucky do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following. Ist After my just debts and funeral expenses are paid I give to my beloved wife Elizabeth all my estate both real and personal during her natural life for the purpose of rearing and educating my six children, who are yet in their minority and for her maintenance and support except such property as is herein after bequeathed and at the death of my said wife Elizabeth the property devised to her to be equally divided among my six children to wit George, Wiley, Ann, Wesley Garrison, Martha Nancy White and Cornelius Astbury. 2^d I give to my son Joseph B. Norman the tract of land upon which he now resides containing ninety eight acres, being a part of a 300 acre survey formerly owned by John Nelson, and a negro boy Jacob's youngest child named Hamner. 3^d I give to my daughter Eliza Keplein the negro part she has now in possession named Blary. 4th I give to my daughter Agnes Bauldown a negro boy which she now has in possession named Benjamin. 5th I give to my son George Norman a tract of land patented to Joseph McMullen containing 300 acres when he comes of age or should many to be received by him as a part of the first bequest made in this will according to the value of said tract of land. 6th I give to my son Wesley Garrison a tract of land adjoining the tract on which my son Joseph now lives known as the quarter tract containing about 150 acres, never the less the farm on said tract is to remain in the possession of my wife Elizabeth until her death should my son Wesley Garrison marry before the death of my wife, in that case he can take possession & occupy all the said tract of land except the farm and timber sufficient to keep up said farm and I wish it distinctly understood that this tract is to be received as a part of his share of my estate named in the first bequest in this will according to the value of the said tract of land. 7th I give to my son Cornelius Astbury the tract of land on which I now live nevertheless not to have possession of the same until the death of my wife, and the said tract of land is to be received by him as a part of his share of my estate named in the first bequest in this will according to the value of said tract of land. 8th If my wife Elizabeth should marry again in that case it is my will that in lieu of the provision made for her in the foregoing part of this my last will and testament that she have what the law allows widows of intestates. And lastly I do hereby constitute nominate and appoint my son Joseph B. Norman sole executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 21st day of August 1823.

Signed sealed published and declared in presence of us

Levin H. Arnell
Levin Reed

Wesley Norman (seal)

State of Kentucky }
Henderson County } 1st September County Court 1823

This last Will and testament of Wesley Norman dec^d was produced in Court, and read in open Court, according to law, by the oaths of William Green and Levin H. Arnell, subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.
(See order book E page 143)

Attest Will D. Allison clk

The last Will and Testament of Silanus D. Hancock made this 11th day of August 1823. I Silanus D. Hancock being of sound mind and disposing memory do make as my last will and request that my brother Milton Hancock have the entire control of my property of every description whatsoever both personal and real to be disposed of by him as may to him seem best for the purpose of paying off my just debts, and the residue should there be any to be used by him for the benefit of my family in such manner as to him may seem best signed and sealed by me the day of August 1823.