

my son, the sum of twelve hundred dollars, which has already been assigned to him
 I give and devise to each of my four children to wit: Martha Oldison, Robert and Henry, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars My reason for making this bequest of four hundred dollars each to each of my younger children is that the older ones have received much the better education. I therefore give the younger the more money. After my youngest children shall have received their portions of fifteen hundred dollars as before provided, and which my Executor hereafter named shall pay over to them as they arrive at full age or get married, all the rest and remain of my estate shall be equally divided between my children surviving, or the descendants of such as may be dead
 I hereby appoint Henry Oldison executor of this my last will and Testament

Now who is but little lower than the angels in Heaven and who while in the enjoyment of the blessing of health proudly asserts his superiority over the animals and plants of earth is himself but a tributary to the dust upon which he treads, and to which he must inevitably return. That all things are continually passing away, is the great lesson taught by nature as in the plants one growth succeeds another so in man one generation succeeds another.
Therefore it becomes the thoughtful & prudent man to make provision for that great which his daily experience teaches him must happen according to his deeply begueth all my property real & personal to my beloved wife Rachel as after the payment of all my just debts to be used & enjoyed by her until her death or second marriage. In the event of the death of second marriage of my wife, I desire that all my property be equally divided between my children. I desire that all my children be well educated & the cost of said education be charged alike to such & every one do as to make their shares in every respect equal & that as near as possible the same amount be spent on each as a special request. I desire my wife to have in in her own right absolute & entire all my Bank & Stock comprising twelve shares in the Henderson branch of the Farmers Bank during her natural life & I do strictly enjoin her as one of the conditions of this bequest that she is to use the dividends accruing from said stock for her own individual use & enjoyment and at her death to go to my youngest child which amount must be taken into consideration at the general distribution, and do hereby appoint my wife (so long as she may live single) & my son or sons as they may be of age Executors of this my last will & testament.
