Thomas Harb: My last will and Testament.

Will I do hereby bequeath unto my wife Judith Towles all my Estate of every sort, wherever she is, may be situated whether in my possession or held in trust for myself or in remainder subject to the several annuities, and trusts expressed in several deeds recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Henderson County Court to be held, used, enjoyed, and disposed of by her at her pleasure during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided among my living children or the representatives of any such of them as may die, during the life time of my said wife; and I hereby appoint my friend Grant Green and my brother John L. Towles executors of this my last Will, and request that no security may be required of them. I give them power and authority to sell and convey any of my lands for the payment of debts, and should only one of them accept this trust, these powers are hereby given to each, as may qualify. I make it my most urgent and particular request to my brethren of the bar, to aid my said wife and executor in settling up and arranging my estate, and especially my friends Archibald Dixon and Lorenzo H. Powell Esq<sup>s</sup> who are now acquainted with my business, and also my partner George H. Winston Esq<sup>r</sup>. I recommend to my wife and my said executors to consult my said friends on all matters of law, and earnestly beg my said friends to give them advice & professional aid to my said representatives. Written wholly with my own hand this third day of June 1851.

Thomas Harb:

Will

I Thomas Harb of the County of Henderson in the State of Kentucky, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, first: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Eliza J. Harb, all and every description of property she had at the time of my marriage, which the law might vest in me, whether it be lands, slaves, horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, farming utensils or house hold kitchen furniture or other property. I also give her all my crop of corn standing to wit, now growing and to be matured the year 1851, growing out this farm where I reside; and having six hundred dollars out of my money belonging to my estate, to her absolutely forever. I give my beloved children John B. Harb, Isabelle Manchester wife of John B. Manchester, Emily Black, wife of James S. Black, David Harb, Thomas S. Harb, Bombarilla Harb, and my Grand daughter Sally Harb, daughter of my son Nathaniel Harb dec<sup>d</sup>, all the rest and residue of my estate, provided the mother of my said Grand daughter will consent that she may be taken and educated under the entire control and supervision of my Executors herein after named; but if she will not consent, then and in that event my will and desire is that my said Grand daughter shall have only fifty dollars and no more. And whereas I did some time last spring convey to my children all my lands and maps which I then possessed, and my intention was that they should all share equally in the division of said property, and the property hereunto bequeathed to my
