 and disposing memory do make, ordain, publish this my last will and Testament revoking all other wills heretofore made by me. First, I will devise to my grand children the children of my husband & Ruggles living at the time of my death to be equally divided and the children who may have been born after my death to be equally divided between them. All my real estate situate in Henderson County State of Kentucky and hereinafter to wit my property lying outside the limits of the city of Henderson & my property on Brown River & all real estate I may own at the time of my death whenever equated the real estate of said property to be used to maintain support & educate my said grand children I desire and instruct to be employed in the family while my grand children are small & the son to have a collegiate education my husband & Ruggles can put whatever building improvements he please on any portion of said property but said buildings are to be long to my said children & the property to be long to them. Now I want to say that I desire that any portion of said property to be used to go to my said grand children as well as that that may be born after my death and those living at the time of my death or my said grand children to them & their heirs forever. The son of my husband & Ruggles is to take charge & have the management of the estate hereby devised to my said grand children. But he want my son & Ruggles should do a short time from any cause or he is a faithful man by my said grand in my the management of their property then as I have I desire that Samuel B. Ruggles be manager of the property hereby devised to my said children for them. Now I want to say that I desire any of the Ruggles family to have anything to do with the management of the property of my said grand children. I have confidence in my husband & Ruggles & I desire that my son & Ruggles he shall not be required to give any security in the performance of his duties in the management of the property hereby devised to my said children. I desire that some of the real estate here devised to my grand children to take care of them the
