

BOOK D PAGE 468 Will of Mrs Anne P. Craig

Henderson Ky March 6th 1894.

I Anne Parker Craig, widow of Edward C. Craig of the Town of Henderson Ky being of sound mind and memory and having been made a femme sole by the Circuit Court of Henderson do make this my last Will and Testament.

I wish the tract of land that I own in my own right lying on the Noble Road 9 miles from Henderson forming the lands of M. Sheaney, J. Jordan, J. Hight, S. King containing 818 acres to be sold, and the following disposition to be made with the proceeds should it sell for Ten Thousand Dollars. I wish my Executors Harry S. Craig, St. George Craig & Robert E. L. Craig to distribute the money as follows, to Cornelia C. Craig, Two Thousand $2000 to Mary Farmer Sexton Hundred $1000 to Pizzie Hornum, Sixteen Hundred $600, the balance Fifty Two Hundred $5200, to be divided between the six following children, Geo. C. Craig, Catherine St. Geo. Craig, Thomas Craig, Jennie S. Walker and Florence Scott of Virginia. Thomas Craig is to be kept in trust for his benefit, should he die without heirs it must go to Geo. C. Craig, St. Geo. Craig, Jennie Walker & Florence Scott. Whatever furniture I own including table ware, silver &c. I give to Cornelia Craig Mary Farmer and Pizzie Hornum. What ever lands I may own in Tennessee and Mississippi, I wish to be sold, and if I own any debts they are to be paid out of the proceeds, and the remainder to be given to John C. Craig and Robert E. L. Craig. I declare that my Executors shall not be accountable for more of the aforesaid money than they actually receive, and shall not be responsible for any loss of said money if it happens without their wilful default or neglect. If I die before my farm is sold, I wish the rents to go to my three daughters but I wish to pay their expenses at Geo. C. Craig to have his board free, all of the foregoing is to hold good until the land is sold for a division. My two sons I leave to Cornelia Craig and Pizzie Hornum. I acknowledge the above to be my act and deed (without being influenced by anyone) to which I put my hand and seal in the presence of two witnesses.

Will of Jacob Watson

Know all men by these presents that I Jacob Watson farmer and resident in and of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky being Eighty years of age, but of sound mind and memory and mindful of the uncertainty of life, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows to wit:

First. I here by appoint and constitute my beloved wife Robert Ann Watson, my sole executrix, and direct that she may be permitted to qualify as such, without bond of any kind being required of her.

Second. I direct to be quietly and decently buried without unnecessary show or expense.

Third. I direct my executrix to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Fourth. Having in the past already given to each of my children by my first wife, Nancy A. Watson, property to the amount of Two Hundred Dollars or thereabouts, and earnestly desiring to be just and impartial between all my children, and having four children by my present wife of tender years, and all of whom are yet to be raised and educated, to wit, Della Bony, Rose, Doctor Franklin, and Virgie Isabella, aged respectively 15 (fifteen), Thirteen (13), Eleven (11) and Nine (9) years, Now therefore to secure to them, the four last above named children of mine by my present wife, Robert Ann Watson, and to enable my said wife to provide for them, our said children suitable support, maintenance and education after the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses as herein before directed, I give and bequeath to my said wife, all the rest and residue of my personal property of what ever kind and character for such uses and purposes as she may deem best to see, work, sell or exchange the stock on hand or any of it, in her discretion, for the support and maintenance of herself and four aforesaid children, the whole of said personal property together with the income thereof.
