Attest Geo. W. Smith Clerk
By H. Beverly, D.C.

I, Bridgett Sudlow, feeling that with old age and the uncertainty of life and trusting in the Giver of every perfect and good gift do make this as my last Will and Testament—

1st I desire that what I owe to Henry Reigler and all other just debts and my funeral expenses be paid.

2<sup>d</sup> And the balance of my estate if there be any left I desire my Executor hereinafter named to purchase for myself and son James Paul Storer for our respective Graves—

3<sup>d</sup> My estate consists of Two Shares Series M15, of Building & Loan Association and I hereby authorize and empower my Executor to either close out the same with the Building and Loan Association or he may at his discretion pay up all interest and dues until the whole amount becomes due and payable—

4th If after paying all my just debts and funeral expenses there should be anything left I desire that the same together with all my clothing, jewelry &c be equally divided among my Grandchildren John, Cyrus & Roman, Children of my son James Sudlow—

5th I appoint my friend Henry Reigler as my Executor of this my last Will and Testament and request the County Court to require no surety of him—Witness my hand this 27th day of July 1886—

Bridgett Sudlow
Subscribed by Bridgett Sudlow in our presence and we sign this instrument as witnesses in her presence & at her request—

Attest: Geo. W. Smith, Clerk

Mrs. Andrew Tate and Hugh Tate, brothers, being advanced in age but of sound mind and memory, do jointly and severally make and declare this our last Will and Testament in the words and figures following, hereby revoking any and all Wills and Devises heretofore made by us: First:— To our sister Nancy Tate, we will and devise that, upon her death that she needs and desires provision for a home and support during her life, the same shall be made by ample and equitable Contribution levied upon the devise hereinafter made; that is to say, one third of Contribution upon the property herein bequeathed to our nephew Gabriel Tate, Son of our brother James Tate, deceased, or his representatives, one third upon the property herein bequeathed to our niece, Mary Harding formerly Mary Tate, or her representatives, and one third upon the property herein bequeathed to our niece, Nancy Kerr formerly Nancy Tate, or her representatives, both, said Mary and Nancy daughters of our said brother James Tate deceased—

Second:— To our said nephew, Gabriel Tate, we bequeath and devise all our lands lying upon and between the Ohio river and Green river in Henderson County, Kentucky, including our interest—being one half of a tract held in partnership with estate of Major Ingelle Toney, deceased, said lands consisting of five purchases and containing about nine hundred and sixty acres, to have and to hold with all the profits and rents of same, subject to the Contribution in favor of our sister, Nancy Tate, heretofore provided for, during his life and then to his children; But, in case he shall leave no child alive at his death, the said lands shall be divided equally between our said nieces, Mary and Nancy, if both shall survive, for their use and benefit, during their lifetime, and then to their children: If only Mary shall survive, Gabriel, he leaving no child, then the lands bequeathed to him shall be equally divided between her—for her use and benefit during her life and then to her children—and the children of Nancy, or, if Nancy shall leave no child, the lands shall pass to the provision of Mary during her life and then to her children; or, if only Nancy shall survive Gabriel, he leaving no child, the lands bequeathed to him shall be equally divided between her for her use and benefit during her life and then to her children, and the children of Mary, or, if Mary shall leave no child the said lands shall pass to the possession of Nancy during her life and then to her children; If either Mary or Nancy shall survive Gabriel, he leaving no child, the lands bequeathed to him shall be equally divided between the child or children of Mary and the child or children of Nancy.
