Will of
Mrs B B
Adams

I Eleanor P. Adams of Henderson Ky do hereby make and publish this instrument as my last will and -

I do hereby give devise and bequeath unto my four sons Joseph William John and Robert to each an equal share all my real estate lying and being in the City of Louisville Ky which consists of certain lots of ground which was sold by gift of date March 1840 of record in the Clerk's office of the Jefferson County Court and conveyed to me by my Mother Sophronista Grayson (a part of the property conveyed as above mentioned has been sold as will be seen on reference to the Deed Books of the Jefferson County Court) and I desire that no part of my real estate shall either be sold or divided among my said sons until my son Robert shall have arrived at the age of twenty five years or until such time when Robert would have arrived at the age of twenty five years should he survive to that age and accordingly I direct that all my real Estate shall remain undivided until that period. That the same shall be either rented or used so as to yield the best profit and at the period stated shall be divided among my said children in shares of equal value.

Further I desire that none of my said sons shall at any time previous to the date when they shall come into possession of my real estate create any charge against said property by encumbering the same or by making sale of their interest therein.

Finally I do give and bequeath unto my four children to each an equal share in all other property which I may own at the time of my decease or to which I may have to the legal or equitable.

I do hereby constitute and appoint as the Executor of this will
