Will of Mrs Eliza Jane Gibson

Knowing the uncertainty of life & being of sound mind & disposing memory, I, Eliza Jane Gibson of Henderson County State of Kentucky do make & declare this to be my last will and testament.

First, I will & devise all my property, real & personal, to my beloved husband Nathan A. Gibson for & during the term of his natural life to use as he desires should any of the personal property of mine be on hand at the time of his death, I will & devise same to Jennie Norton of Henderson Ky. (wife of Harry Norton) & Oscar Sutton of Henderson Ky. - 1/2 to each.

Second, I will and devise all the real estate that I may own at my death one fourth (1/4) to Henry S. Johnson one fourth (1/4) to William Carroll Gibson, one fourth (1/4) to Mary Elizabeth Sutton (wife of J. P. Sutton) and one fourth (1/4) to the children of Mr. Gibson (who recently died in Knoxville Kentucky) The afore said Henry S. Johnson and William Carroll Gibson were named by my husband Nathan A. Gibson. Said Wm Carroll Gibson being his son and said Henry S. Johnson being the step grand son of my said husband. The 1/2 interest devised to said Mary Sutton shall be her separate estate & I will & devise same to her free from the use debts mortgage right & control of her present or any future husband she may have.

Now for the purpose of disposing of any of the personal effects that may be on hand, I herein appoint said Henry S. Johnson the executor of this my last will & testament and direct the he be allowed to qualify without executing bond. I direct that he collect any debt owing me & sell any personal property on hand, & pay any debt I may owe & after that to divide the proceeds, after paying the costs of the probate of this Will, in the said James Norton & Oscar Sutton to each as I have directed.

Given under my hand this the 30th day of May 1893.
