

Elizabeth P. Agnew knew all men by their persons that I, Elizabeth P. Agnew of Henderson County, Ky. being in good health and of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament First I resign my soul into the hands of Almighty God hoping and believing in a remission of my sins by the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ - and my body I commit to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my executor hereinafter named, and my worldly estate I give and devise as follows, First, I give and devise to my Nephew Henry J. Mudge my farm messuage and tenement with the appurtenances situate lying and being in Henderson County, to have and to hold unto my said Nephew Henry J. Mudge his heirs and assigns forever, Also, I give and bequeath to my Nephew Augustus D. Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Nephew Alfred A. Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Nephew William R. Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also, I give and bequeath to my niece Alice H. Porey the sum of two hundred dollars, Also, I give and bequeath to my Nephew Reed Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Niece Eliza D. Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Niece Elizabeth Kate Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Nephew Frederick Theophilus Blake the sum of two hundred dollars, Also I give and bequeath to my Niece Catherine Jennette Sockett the sum of two hundred dollars, Also, I give and bequeath to my sister Catherine Blake all my household furniture, And I do hereby appoint my Brother in law Theophilus Blake executor of this my last will and testament and do give unto him the remainder of my money or property in consideration of my having advanced a sum and trouble he will have in the execution of this my will, and my will is and I do hereby expressly declare that my said executor shall not be charged or chargeable with, or accountable for more of the aforesaid money or estates than he shall actually receive or shall come to his hands in virtue of this my will or with or for any loss which shall happen of the said money or estates or of any part of my personal estate so as such loss happens without his wilful default or neglect. In testimony whereof I the said Elizabeth P. Agnew have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 10th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight.

Elizabeth P. Agnew

The above instrument was at the date thereof declared to be by the testator Elizabeth P. Agnew to be her last will and testament and she acknowledged to each of us that she had subscribed the same, and we at her request signed our names hereto, as attesting witnesses,

J. H. Evans
A. R. Evans

State of Kentucky, Henderson County Court February Term 1890.
Henderson County, Ky. 25th day of February 1890

This day a paper purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Mrs Elizabeth P. Agnew dec'd late of Henderson County was produced in open Court and proven by the oath of J. H. Evans & A. R. Evans subscribing witnesses thereon the same was adjudged by the Court to be the true last will of Mrs Elizabeth P. Agnew dec'd and ordered to be recorded as such, - which is here done.

Attest Geo. H. Smith Clerk
By Amos Smith D.C.

Robert B. Batte came Henderson County Ky October 31st 1889 - I Robert Bennett Batte believing in Almighty God and his commandments, and knowing that life is uncertain and death is certain, and being in sound mind, but in declining health do make this my last Will and Testament, I give and bequeath to my wife Mary E. Batte all of my real estate and personal property, consisting of one house and lot in Cairo Ky. My present household - What live stock I may have and their increase, all rolling stock I may have, a stock of Dry Goods, Groceries &c. or their proceeds - all money I may have, or to come to me, after my just debts are paid, to use for her comfort and support and the benefit and support of my Daughter Maud Batte, so long as she remains a widow, at her marriage all of the above property or what may be on hand or remain then to revert to my Daughter Maud Batte during her life and at her death, to her heirs, if she has any, if none, these said property including every thing, to revert to my Brother and Sisters and their heirs, and I hereby appoint and make my Daughter Maud Batte her own free agent to rule and control said property, at the death or marriage of her mother Mary E. Batte, I also bequeath to my wife, my Life Ins. in the Knights of Honor to be used as the other personal property, that is for her support and that of my Daughter Maud, and I hereby request my wife to to loan my Life Ins. on real estate and only use the interest, but if said interest is insufficient, then she use the Principal, and I hereby appoint my wife Mary E. Batte, my Administratrix without Bond, and give her full power to settle up my debts, without sales of any thing only what she may not want to use or keep, and then it to be sold privately, and I appoint Geo. H. Smith as my wife's legal adviser during her life or her widowhood, and now feeling that I have done my duty to my Family, I leave all things in the hands of Almighty God, and here subscribe my names in his presence and in the presence of three witnesses, This the 31st day of October A. D. 1889.
Witness, J. C. Gillingham
Robert Bennett Batte,
B. J. Denton