Will of J. Henry Ladd

I J. Henry Ladd (a Farmer) do make this my last will. I give and devise and bequeath my estate and property as follows. After paying my funeral expenses and any debts I may owe my son J. Ladd, I leave to him the farm for ~~some~~ ^{his} McClinton Farm. My father J. Ladd to be taken care of during his natural life and for this purpose, draw all my estate for his benefit and as much as the interest, so my father, may use up his estate and in case of his death may use the principal so as to take care of him comfortably. After my father's death, I desire my estate to be divided as follows: John, sister, Britchell my sister, be paid one dollar. Frankie, being another sister, one dollar. The children of Jno Ladd a brother, one dollar and balance of estate to be equally divided between Ben Ladd and Jas Ladd my brothers and my sister Mattie Malinck and that my executor in paying the brothers James Ladd and Sister pay this one dollar which may be to them for their own use and benefit and is only to be there in this will when paid to them. On other words, I mean to say Jas Ladd and Mattie Malinck are to have their share and not to be subject to execution against them until after in their possession. I appoint Ben Ladd my brother (a farmer of Anderson County Ky) my executor of this my will. In witness whereof I have signed and sealed this instrument as my will this 10th day of Jan'y 1890.
