Almira E. Suggitt

Will, Ky
 April 23rd 1877. I Almira E. Suggitt of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind, sober in failing health make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all other wills or Codicils. First, I will that my just debts be paid out of the proceeds of my farm from year to year the creditors waiting until the money can be made and receiving in interest, I will that Dr. J. L. Hodge be paid out of my estate Twenty Dollars for attention to my husband, and I give George W. Shute Fifteen Dollars, and to Sallie Knight wife of John R. Knight half a dozen queen split bottom chairs, and a half dozen decent spoons. I give all the balance of my estate real and personal to James White and H. C. Farmer and their legal successors of the afore named County and State in trust for the use and benefit of James Duane Brown Roberts son of D. P. and Lucy J. Roberts the land never to be divided but to descend to the children that may be born in lawful marriage to said J. D. P. Roberts. But the property is given with restrictions to be mentioned below. D. P. and Lucy J. Roberts have the privilege of a home on my land for themselves any children they now have or she may have during minority or as long as any girl child of hers is unmarried, but one fourth of the proceeds of the crop raised is to be appropriated by my trustees to the education of said J. D. P. Roberts with a view to his entering the Christian Ministry as a Baptist or Presbyterian. The farm and land and proceeds are to be controlled by said Trustees and nothing raised on the farm is to be subject to any one's debt except as to my own as before mentioned, and all raised on the farm except the fourth as appropriated as before mentioned is to be used by Lucy J. Roberts for the benefit of herself and family and J. D. Roberts, should he be left a widower so long as he may continue unmarried but no children except Lucy J. Roberts shall be raised on the place out of its proceeds should J. D. P. Roberts die without children then the land shall belong to the children of Lucy J. Roberts who shall have the use of it during her life time as directed in this will, the land bordering on the road next Mr. Munn is not to be cleared but may be thinned and put in grass. The land next to Athlete back of the stable must not be cleared but may be used as the before named piece of land. The lot in front of the house shall not be plowed or cultivated. If any suits should come against my estate my trustees are authorized to use any property I may leave to defend and much employ and be guided by the advice of Henry S. Surner of Henderson, in case J. D. P. Roberts survive his parents and his mother's children shall have arrived to the age of twenty one or shall have married he shall be entitled to the benefit of all the proceeds of my farm. I appoint as Executor of my will the said James White and Henry C. Farmer without security.

 Will

Desiring to make a just disposition of my property and estate after my death, I do ordain and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking any and other wills heretofore made by me. — Item 1st I give and bequeath the whole of my estate, except the sum of Three thousand Dollars to my children: Reuben P. Posey, Mary H. Posey, Lucy P. Marshall, Henry D. Posey, Martha A. Seitz, Eliza M. Seitz, W. D. Posey, Sallie E. Ross, George D. Posey, and Addison L. Posey, and the children of my son John W. Posey, to be equally divided between them, the children of John W. Posey together receiving one share in lieu of their father, which is to be paid to him for them without security. — Item 2nd I give and bequeath to W. J. Marshall the sum of Three Thousand Dollars in trust for the following purpose viz: that he used the said sum in such interest paying bonds or stocks as he may deem best, and apply the annual income therefrom to the support and maintenance of my son Thos L. Posey and his wife and children or any one or more of said parties in his discretion the network extent and purpose of this bequest being that the said trustee and his successors shall have the absolute discretion to apply said fund in his family. Item 3^d. At the death of my son Thos L. Posey should he leave any living child or children, it is my will that such child or children together receive out of the said sum of Three thousand Dollars such an amount as shall be equal to one full child's part in my estate. The balance of said Three thousand Dollars to be distributed equally among my other heirs as mentioned in item first. Item 4th. Should such child or children of my son Thos L. Posey who may inherit a portion then it is my will that such portion revert to my other heirs to be equally divided among them. Item 5th. Should my son Thos L. Posey die before me children 2 and 3 are to be void and his child or children living shall come in and inherit a child's part of my estate with my other heirs as mentioned in item first. Item 6. The property herein bequeathed to my daughters are intended to be their separate estate and property. Item 7. I appoint my son in law H. C. Marshall the executor of this my last will and testament, and hereby authorize and direct him to sell and convey any real estate I may own at my death for the purpose of division and distribution. George Atkinson

I George Atkinson of the City and County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, do make and publish this my last and only last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other wills and Codicils heretofore made by me. First: It is my desire that my executors hereinafter named or such of them as may act, shall, as soon after my decease as practicable, pay off and discharge all of my just debts. The larger portion of which are in bank, and should the proceeds of my personal effects prove insufficient for that purpose, I hereby authorize and direct my said executors, or such of them as may act, to sell and convey such of my real estate as may be necessary to raise money to pay said debts, hereby leaving it to the discretion and sound judgment of my said executor as to what portion of my real estate shall be sold for that purpose. Second: It is my desire in case I should not cause it to be done before that, as soon after my death as may be convenient, my executors shall cause to be removed from the Old Grave Yard near the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, such members of my family as are there interred, and inter them in the two lots down in the City Cemetery, that the said lots be then enclosed with a heavy and strong iron fence or railing, and that such good and substantial marble tomb stones as my executors may select shall be placed upon my own and the graves of the other members of my family; it being my wish that the said enclosures and marble stones shall be of a substantial plain and durable character. The cost of executing this provision of my will is to be paid by my executors out of my estate, but nothing herein is to interfere with or postpone the payment of my debts. Third: Such debts and demands which at the signing and publication of this will I have or hold against the following named persons whether evidenced by bond, note, book account or otherwise, I do hereby remit, release and acquit unto said persons respectively viz: The estates of my brothers James Atkinson and John Atkinson my nephews Robert Small, my son Edward Atkinson, my daughter Mary S. Duncan and her husband Stanton Duncan and the estate of my son Richard D. Atkinson, it being my desire that no claim now due me from any of said persons shall be collected by my executors or charged to any of said persons in the distribution of my estate as hereinafter directed. Fourth: I have charges on my books against my son John C. Atkinson, and perhaps other evidences of debts due from him to me, principally for monies paid by me for him in the management of his farm in Union County, heretofore conveyed by me to him, but in consideration of the fact that he is my eldest son, that we were long associated together in business, that he has rendered me good and valuable
