Now Late Rector of the said Church do make this my will in witness whereof all others with me, my friends and my first and only brother D. J. Burr Porter and John J. Porter and my sister Caroline C. Butler upon the settlement of my sister Margaret's share in their share thereof, and I wish to express my appreciation of their affectionate kindness in allowing to them about the same amount, to be therefore give to each of my said brothers the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, and to my said sister the sum of one hundred and seventy-five dollars; the being to each of my sister Margaret two shares of the same was but half that of each of my brothers. And I give to my sister Alice Mary my furniture which is in the house of Third Street in the city of New York, to my said sister Margaret during her long illness. To wit: All the rest of my estate I give to be equally divided between my brother D. J. Burr Porter and John J. Porter, and my sister Alice Mary wife of William P. Mayo and Caroline C. Butler wife of the Rev. Mr. C. Butler of the city of Brooklyn. And I direct that the names of my said sisters shall be for their own separate use, free from the debts and liabilities of their husbands, during their lives, and at their death respectively to their children and the descendants of each, and if dead, the descendants to take the parent's share, but with authority to each of my said sisters to do proof of it among its children and their descendants, because of them and in such proportion as we may think best. I appoint my brother D. J. Burr Porter and John J. Porter executors of this my will, and whoever shall be necessary shall be required of them or either of them as executors.

Witness my hand this the 8th day of March A.D. 1876.

I should add the following codicil to my foregoing will: I direct that before any business of my estate is made or any business devised to me are paid and understood by D. J. Burr Reese & Co. or by Reese & Thays and to D. J. Burr Reese & Co. shall be paid out of my estate, the indebtedness to D. J.
 Burr Reese to be paid to D. J. Burr Reese, 2/3 of the indebtedness to Reese & Thays to be paid to W. J. Burr Reese and 1/3 to John I. Reese, 1/2 of the indebtedness to D. J. Burr Reese & Co. to be paid to D. J.
 Burr Reese and 1/2 to John I. Reese. All the foregoing understood and executed by my brothers D. J. Burr Reese & John I. Reese having no money or paying my debts for me and I direct that my
