

James White
D
H110

August 31st 1887. I James White of the County of Henderson being in failing health but of sound mind and disposing memory make this my last will and Testament. I give to my wife Virginia A White all of my property real and personal after the payment of my just debts and make her my sole executrix -
James White

Witness
H. H. Farmer
Percy Smith

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court Sept Term 1887
Henderson County } (26th of Sept 1887)

This day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of James White late of Henderson County, dec^d was this day produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of H. H. Farmer and Percy Smith, subscribing witnesses thereto, thereupon the same was adjudged by the Court to be the last will of said James White, and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done accordingly. Attest
Geo W Smith Clerk
By J. H. Beverley Sec.

Rucker

I, Peggy Rucker being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and constitute this as my last will and Testament. I do give and devise to my beloved grand daughter Josephine Jackson daughter of my son Howard Jackson the house and lot in the City of Henderson Ky on which I now reside same fronting about fifty feet on water street between Adams & Dixon streets. To have and to hold said property for and during her natural life, and at her death the same to pass to her children, but my son Charles Jackson shall have ^{a house} in said house for himself so long as he shall remain unmarried. In Witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 28th day of August 1887 -
Peggy Rucker
subscribed in our presence by Peggy Rucker her
at her request. Attest S. S. Marshall
S. S. Marshall

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
October County Court (24th day of Oct 1887 -

This day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Peggy Rucker late of Henderson County dec^d was this day produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of S. S. Marshall and Jas S Marshall subscribing witnesses thereto, thereupon the same was adjudged by the Court to be the last true will of Peggy Rucker and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done accordingly.
Attest
Geo W Smith Clerk

I John Funtston being in my right mind conscious and in full possession of my reason and judgment do this day November the seventh in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty Seven make this my last will and Testament to-wit
I do hereby bequeath to my wife for her use and benefit during the term of her natural life the residence in which I now live with all the furniture and house-hold goods kitchen furniture with barn Stables horses cattle hogs Sheep and all the crop of every description grown on the farm, also One hundred acres of land lying next contiguous to the residence, also a sufficient amount of timber to keep up the fences on said One hundred acres and supply fuel for the house for a period of ten years to be taken from the woodland belonging to me and lying south east of said hundred acres, at the death of my wife the foregoing bequest is to be divided to my youngest daughter Dorothy Funtston - The remainder of my estate including lands &c I hereby bequeath to John H Funtston Isabelle Jane Funtston, Martha Ellen Stone, I hereby authorize my son John H Funtston to exercise his judgment in regard to Martha Ellen Stone, and if he thinks she ought to have something more to her share, he may make the additional allowance, the last bequest is to be equally divided between the aforementioned three children subject to the above mentioned discretionary allowance to be made if necessary by John H Funtston.

Witnesses
L. M. Johnson
E. S. Corowley
J. M. Norvell

John Funtston

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
November Term 1887 (28th day of November 1887)

This day a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of John Funtston late of Henderson County dec^d was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of L. M. Johnson and J. M. Norvell two subscribing witnesses thereto, thereupon the same was adjudged by the Court to be the last will of said John Funtston, and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done accordingly.
Attest
Geo W Smith Clerk
By J. H. Beverley Sec.