I John R. Wilson formerly of Ireland now of Henderson County State of Kentucky, make this my last will and testament. I will that in the settlement of my estate that my son Robert A. Wilson shall have one hundred dollars provided my three younger children shall have as much as five hundred dollars each and if they have more or less said Robert A. Wilson shall have in the ratio of one to five of what each of my other children shall have. I do this as he has each one a great deal of money. I will that at my death all my property personal and real be sold on a credit as long as may be prudent and the proceeds after paying the legacy to my son Robert A. be invested in United States bonds or other interest bearing bonds, the interest to be appropriated to the use of my minor children until they become of age, when the principal shall be paid to them. My executor may separate my children if necessary and put them out where they will be of least expense so they are well treated. I appoint James White my Executor.
