

this state & that such property be held in trust for those children by a guardian whom the law may appoint, until they become of age. It is also my wish that Mr John Lang for his services as Administrator of my estate be given the privilege of purchasing my house and lot on Ingram St at the price of two hundred & fifty dollars & that said John Lang be admitted as my Administrator without bond.

Given this day in full possession of all my mental faculties in the presence of the undersigned witnesses the fourth day of June Eighteen Hundred & Twenty seven.

Signature
xxx Susan Jellar

Witness
Laura A. Ligon
Mary Humes
E. H. Bower

State of Kentucky 1897 June Term Henderson County Court
Henderson County 3d Ct. Court June 28th 1897

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Susan Jellar Dec^d late of Henderson County Ky. was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the Oaths of Laura A. Ligon, Mary Humes & E. H. Bower, the same was then adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of Susan Jellar Dec^d and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done Given under my hand this June 28th 1897.

J. C. Hart Clerk
By P. H. Powell D.C.

Will of Dora Pranks

In the name of God Amen, I Dora Pranks of Henderson County State of Kentucky, being in feeble health, but of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last Will and Testament, as follows to wit:

Item 1st. All my home hold and kitchen furniture of every description including beds and bedding in the house where I now live in the village of Audubon County and State aforesaid, I will and bequeath to my daughter Martha Schueller. I also will and bequeath to my said daughter Martha Schueller my cow and three hogs. In testimony whereof I hereunto sign my name this 14th day of May 1897.

Dora Pranks

We Charles Hetchman and R. Serquin Easton do hereby certify that Mrs Dora Pranks in our presence signed the foregoing instrument of writing, after the same had been read as she dictated, and in our presence declared the same to be her last Will and Testament, and then at her request and in her presence and in presence of each other signed our names to this certificate as attesting witnesses. May 14th 1897.

Charles Hetchman
R. Serquin Easton

State of Kentucky 1897 June Term Henderson County Court
Henderson County 3d Ct. Court June 28th 1897

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Dora Pranks Dec^d late of Henderson County Ky. was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the Oaths of R. Serquin Easton & Charles Hetchman the two undersigned witnesses thereto. The same was then adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of Dora Pranks Dec^d and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done. Given under my hand this June 28th 1897.

J. C. Hart Clerk
By P. H. Powell D.C.

Will of John S. Rodman Jr.

I, John S. Rodman of the City of Henderson Ky. knowing the uncertainty of life, do now make this my last Will & Testament. I have seven children & two sons named as follows, viz: Amelia S. wife of Morris Hicks, Ann S. wife of Jas Higal, Maria E. wife of John A. Stapp, Martha M. wife of John C. Day, Lizzie M. wife of H. L. Minnis, John S. Rodman & Thos B. Rodman.

I have heretofore given to my son John S. Rodman what I consider his full share of my estate. Therefore I give him nothing in this will.

All of my estate which consists of some personal property, and one lot in the City of Henderson fronting on the N.E. side of first upper cross street, between Albee & Albee streets the frontage being about seventy feet on said first street & extending back about two hundred feet to an alley, and having on it two dwelling houses I devise equally to my six children, to wit: Amelia S. Hicks, Ann S. Higal, Maria E. Stapp, Martha M. Day, Lizzie M. Minnis & Thomas B. Rodman. They are all of legal age and can make the devise on to suit them selves without any expense of suit. I do not owe any debts & therefore I do not want any expense of administration

Witness my hand this 4th day of August 1894.

John S. Rodman &

Signed by John S. Rodman & in our presence & by us attested in his presence.

Amey J. Parnis

Thos. H. Taylor

State of Kentucky 3 1897 June Term Henderson County Court
Henderson County 3d Ct June 29th 1897.

On June 28th 1897 this paper purporting to be the last will and testament of John S. Rodman & Co. of Henderson County Ky. was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of Thos. H. Taylor & on this day by the oath of Amey J. Parnis the two subscribing witnesses thereto. The same was then adjudged to be the true last will and testament of John S. Rodman & Co. and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done.

J. L. Hart Clerk
By P. W. Powell De

Will of John Harris Dec^d

I know all men by these presents that I John Harris of the town of Spottsville Henderson County Ky. being of sound mind and disposing memory make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

As to all my property, real personal and mixed of which I shall die seized, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death I bequeath and dispose of in the following manner: First.

I wish of course, all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my executors, hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate as soon as convenient after my death.

Second. I give and bequeath to my son W. J. Harris in trust for my beloved wife Amanda Harris, my homestead or residence property containing two and one half acres of land for her use and residence together with all the improvement & income of one hundred acres of the two hundred acre tract of land lying on the South West side of the Spottsville road: Also in trust to my sons W. J. Harris and John Harris for the use and benefit of my beloved wife Amanda Harris two thirds of all my personal property including notes, money, and proceeds of my Executors sale after my death, and property to be held and invested by my sons W. J. Harris and John Harris in trust for my wife Amanda Harris. He to devise and to be paid the annual income thereof for and during her natural life.

Third I give and bequeath to my sons W. J. Harris and John Harris in trust for my daughter Amanda Smith wife of Jim Smith of Paducah Ky. one hundred acres of the two hundred acre tract of land lying on the South West side of the Spottsville Road in Henderson County Ky. said tract to be divided equally and as nearly by a straight line as possible, commence-ing about Henry Jakes pond together with one third of all my personal estate, money, notes and proceeds of Executors sale, and my share which I especially desire her to have, said property to be held by my sons W. J. Harris and John Harris in trust for my daughter Amanda Smith for and during her natural life. They paying to her only the income and annual interest derived therefrom, and in the event of her death the said property to be held by my sons W. J. Harris & John Harris for any child or children the issue of her body, and surviving her, and to be held in trust for said child or children until said children or either of them attain the age of twenty one years when same shall be paid to them free from the trust. But should the said Amanda Smith become a widow, her now living husband Jim Smith dying before her then in that event, I wish all of the property herein bequeathed to my sons W. J.
Harris and John Harris in trust for her to be given over to her in fee simple to dispose of as she may see fit - but this only in the event of her said present husband Jim Smith dying before her, and in the event of the death of either of my said sons W. J. Harris & John Harris before the consummation and completion of the trust herein appointed to them then in that event, I wish the survivor to succeed to all the powers singly appointed herein to both of them.
Fourth After the death of my beloved wife Amanda Harris, and the expiration of the trust