Pondent March 4th 1854 -

My dear children

Fulling I have not so long to live I feel it my duty to say what I wish done with the small sum of money I leave behind also my few clothing and notions I leave for my children - Of the money at interest in Henderson which is first hundred dollars I want each Helen, Josie, Anna, and Davide child, to have one hundred dollars. The one hundred remaining I wish added to what is in the Bank here in Pondent I wish to be used to pay my funeral expenses and put up a plain headstone at my grave, and if any money is left over and above I want Josie to have it as she is the needy of my children And I want Josie to have most of my clothing as they will fit her better than any one - and will do her more good. I say all except some few things for my other children for a remembrance - Anna my black Cashmere dress and black worsted shawl if she likes and any little notions she would like Helen my Album except one of Davide pictures taken at Memphis before his marriage for Josie and one of the other for Fizzie and Helen and the other pictures down in Henderson to be divided agreeably to each. Also I want Helen to have my collar Nelly Granddall made for me and any other notions that she would like say the black embroidered shoulder shawl Fizzie my black silk dolma and black crapes shawl and shoes and stockings if they fit and any other little article she likes Josie my Grey dress and shawl and other dresses, also the under clothing packed in my trunk I want for Eddie's name to be used by his mother as long as she thinks best, the calico quilt for Anna, also my writing desk and pictures My work box for little Helen with its contents. My Black Silk for Jane.

July 10th 1856 I want the wishes expressed carried out by Helen with some few exceptions, which I instruct her to make.
