Will of J. W. Gregory -

Being in sound mind, but in poor health and wanting to dispose of my property. This being my last and only will-

I give my wife Mittie M. Gregory her life time the farm we live on, and one half the Griffen field. At the death of Mittie M. Gregory I want the land to go back to my son R. E. Gregory and my daughter Mandy Sumner. If either of these parties should die without heirs I want the one that lives to have the above land. I give my son R. E. Gregory one hundred acres of land, running down the Mason Perry Road from R. E. Gregory's house & his land to make one hundred acres. I want my daughter Mandy Sumner & her heirs to have the balance of the river - After R. E. Gregory's 100 acres has been surveyed off and the remainder of the Griffen - I want Mandy Sumner to have and her bodily heirs. It is my desire that Mandy Sumner shall rent the above land to R. E. Gregory for 10 years at one hundred Dollars per year to be paid yearly to said Mandy Sumner - I want R. E. Gregory to pay out my estate Twenty Five Dollars to W.

Comp^d

L. Gregory's heirs. That being in full all I intend to give them - This is not to be yearly but Twenty Five Dollars in cash in full of their portion of my estate. The personal property can be divided between my wife & my son R. E. Gregory after my debts are all paid Witness our hands December 1893. I want each & every one - the above named parties to take charge of their property without any bond being required of them
