Will of V. C. Floyd

I, V. C. Floyd being of a sound and disposing mind, feeble in health, and wishing to dispose of my property among my children, do make this my last will and testament: declaring a former will on the grounds that one of my children has died, with I have disposed of property that I then possessed, and that I now have property which I did not then own.

First, it is my will that all of my heretofore debts shall be first paid.

Secondly, I will to my daughter Ann Royster one tract of land known as the Gittler Tract, embracing all of my land South of a straight line beginning at my corner at the public road on the Ohio Sandstone Thence running with my line along said road by the gate to a point in my line in the Sandstone road near lots of L. A. Smith, containing about 60 acres.

Thirdly, to my daughter Ella Milton I give One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00)

Fourthly, to my son Mark Floyd I will a piece of land known as the Water Truck, about 40 acres. One house and lot known as the old farm lot joining Mrs. Fitch. One lot opposite the cemetery in Anderson County Ky. lying between the lot now occupied by John Smider as residence and the lot on which he (Smider) now has a grocery. Also I will to Mark Floyd one mare called Anna, one yearling horse, called Complector, and all claims that I may have against him.

To my son Wm. M. Floyd I give one thousand Dollars, a part of which shall be in notes, which I now hold against him. The excess of said note to the One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) Describing above shall be paid in cash.

To my daughter Nannie E. Floyd, my sons, Benj. L. W. & Thos. W. Floyd and my daughter Mary E. & Juanita S. Floyd, I will the following property jointly. The house and lot, which I now occupy as residence, including all of the different adjoining purchase under fence of same. The Academy lot bounded by the public road and line described in will to Ann Royster, including the old academy and containing about 5 acres. One lot known as the meadow lot bought of Peter Krohl, joining Thos. Bettinghams and land now owned by Mah. F. Edlin and bounded on the other two sides by public road and streets. One house and lot known as the Peter F. Edlin's lot joining Mr. Fitch. One lot known as the Phillips property joining Mrs. Alderson, Dr. Galtway and the Madisonville road.

One vacant lot joining Harry Swope, lying between Ann and residence of A. A. Niles. Also the proceeds of all my land notes, cash notes, sale notes, and Three hundred fifty Dollars invested in the Thos. Jackson notes and secured by Cass Public School district, after paying to Ella Milton & Wm. M. Floyd as provided for above. To the same five children I give all my house-hold and kitchen furniture, silverware, table ware, meat, corn and hay now on hand, three head of horses, Maudie, Limbo and a 2 yrs old Colts, all of my farming utensils and gear, including mowers, Drills, buggy, cart, harness, &c.

All cattle and dogs I now own, my library and piano, with this understanding, that Mary E. Nitar bring under age for whom I am owing Six hundred seventy Dollars ($670.00) they are to be furnished money to complete their education (not professional) equal to any of my other children.

Each Mary E. Nitar shall have a horse worth One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) at they become 21 yrs. of age; also a right to have at the old homestead without cost of board until they become of age respectively.

The above special provisions shall be complied with out of the provisions herein made for Nannie Benj. Thos. Mary & Nita Floyd before a decision shall be had. A division may be had sooner than the time when Nita shall be 21 yrs old by making ample provisions for meeting the special provisions for Mary and Nita above. All perishable property, stock, furniture, &c. mentioned in this paragraph, which is not needed by them may be sold and the proceeds equally divided among the five children.
