

of said estate which may be left be equally divided between the descendants of all my children, giving to the children of each the interest they or their parents would have taken in my estate had I have died intestate.

I nominate and appoint my daughter Helen Brewster sole executrix of this will and request of her a faithful observance of my wishes and request the Court by whom this will shall be probated to qualify her as such executrix without security.

signed and published as his last will & testament by Mrs Mary C. Brewster in or presence & attested by us in her presence this 10 day of Sept. 1881.

S. M. Furman
H. B. Furman

State of Kentucky } April County Court, 1882.
Kenderson County } 24 day of April 1882.

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament Mrs Mary C. Brewster late of Kenderson County was produced in open Court and proved according to law by the evidence of Dr W. B. Furman and S. M. Furman subscribing witnesses thereto and the same was adjudged to be the true last will and Testament of said Mary C. Brewster dec. & ordered to be recorded as such which is here done accordingly.

Attest G. W. Smith c. c. c.

I Gabriel P. Lilly of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory for the purpose of disposing of the estate of said property which I may own at my death, do hereby make and publish the following as and for my last will and testament, viz: (1) I desire that all my just debts, and funeral expenses shall be paid; (2) I devise and bequeath to my beloved wife for and during the term of her natural life, all the real estate which I may own at my decease, also my parlor furniture and I desire and direct that she shall have and be allowed the same quantity of and interest in, the remainder of my estate, as she would be entitled to by law, as my widow, regardless of the devise hereinbefore made to her including the property by law exempt from distribution and required to be set apart to the widow of persons dying intestate; (3) Subject to the estate for her life herein devised to my wife, I devise and bequeath to my daughter Susan Hopkins one half of the real estate, which I may own at my decease, in fee simple; (4) All the rest and residue of my estate, I devise and direct to be distributed and divided equally between and among my children living at my decease and the children or descendants of such of them as may be dead, per stirpes; (5) The devise herein made to my wife are fully in consideration of certain moneys which I acquired by my marriage with her and have used, and with the intent that I may not leave her less comfortably provided for, than she was before her marriage. (6) I hereby appoint Samuel Hopkins, my son in law the executor of this my last will and testament.

Exp

Given under my hand this the 27th day of May 1878.
Subscribed and acknowledged before us,
by G. P. Lilly, May 27th 1878.

S. B. Vance
Robt D. Vance

State of Kentucky } April County Court, 1882.
Kenderson County } (25th day of April 1882)

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will & Testament of G. P. Lilly, late of Kenderson County Ky, deceased, was this day produced in open Court and proved according to law by the oath of Robt. D. Vance one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, (see Order Book H. Page for evidence of S. B. Vance the other subscribing witness thereto) Thereupon the same was adjudged to be the true last Will & Testament of said G. P. Lilly dec. and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done accordingly.

Attest Geo. W. Smith c. c. c.
By Sam. W. Sigerson Sec.

Kenderson Co Ky Hy 25 1882.

In the name of God Amen, I, Matilda Cox of this County and State, being of sound mind, but in a bad state of health make this my last will and testament. I give and bequeath to Wm. Cades and John Cades sons of J. D. Cades twenty acres of land descended to me from my father - Jas Murray the balance of the same tract to my son J. D. Cox containing about twenty five acres, I also give to my son J. D. Cox my two best beds and bedsteads the beds on which I now lie and all the bed quilts except two, also I give to J. D. Cox all the chairs and every thing in the house except what is mentioned above as given to W. H. & J. D. Cades, I give also one Bureau to J. D. & W. H. Cades.

Witness
Marshall Robards
Lucie J. Robards
J. M. Willingham

State of Kentucky } March County Court, 1882.
Kenderson County } (27th day of March 1882)

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Matilda Cox late of Henderson County Ky dec'd, was produced in open Court, and proven according to law, by the Oaths of Marshall Roberts, Lewis J. Roberts & J. W. Williamson all subscribing witnesses thereto, Thereupon the same was adjudged to be the true last Will & Testament of said Matilda Cox dec'd, and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done accordingly.

Attest Geo. D. Smith Clerk
By Sam. W. Seymour S.C.

In the name of God Amen! I Byrd Chambers of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and ordain this my last will and testament hereby now revoking any or all former wills that may have been made by me First I desire that all my just debts shall be first paid, Second I devise to my beloved wife Matilda J. Chambers during her life and widowhood all my real estate and personal property subject to the devises and exceptions hereinafter made It is my will and desire that my said wife shall cultivate the farm on which I now live, and use the profits thereof in paying off any debts that may be owing by me and if she should deem best for that purpose she may and she is hereby empowered to sell any of the surplus stock on hand for that purpose and any debt or debts so paid by her shall not be charged against my estate I give and bequeath to my said wife all my household and kitchen furniture of every description, except the piano, to be used or sold or disposed of by her as she may deem best or proper. - Further, I hereby authorize and empower my beloved wife Matilda J. Chambers to sell and convey my real estate at any time she may deem proper so to do, but in the event she shall sell said real estate then she is to be entitled to one-sixth only of the proceeds of said sale, In the event she shall desire or determine to sell said land then it shall be sold on a credit of one two and three years bearing interest from date of sale, In the event my said wife shall sell said land she shall then and she is hereby empowered to sell the personal property belonging to my estate not herein specifically devised upon such terms and conditions as she may deem best, but in this event this sale shall be made she shall be entitled to one-sixth only of the proceeds thereof. - When the sale of the real estate and personal property as herein recited may be made the one-sixth interest as specified, both of the real and personal property which shall be due my said wife shall vest in her absolutely to do with and dispose of as she desires. - Third: Subject to the devise to my wife hereinbefore devised to her, I devise to my beloved sons B. W. D. Chambers and Byrd Chambers and my beloved daughter Mary Chambers, Belle

Watson, wife of Jerome Watson and Dora Winfrey, wife of J. Winfrey, at one and share alike, all my real and personal property, except the personal property herein specifically devised and subject to the bequests made to my grand daughter Paulah Chambers, daughter of my deceased son Robert Chambers and to my beloved daughter Matilda Ann Hicks. Fourth: The interest hereby devised to my son Byrd Chambers shall be subject to Twelve Hundred and forty one & 1/2 Dollars advanced to him heretofore by me and also any indebtedness that may hereafter be incurred by me or by my estate by reason of my being his surety or endorser, and these amounts without interest, shall be deducted from his share in my estate, Fifth: I have heretofore given to my son Byrd Chambers, the right to use and cultivate a certain portion of the farm on which I now live, lying to the right of the road leading from my residence to his, on the East side of the back ditch, the same used and cultivated by him the present year and it is my will that he retain possession of the same free of any charge for rent until the land shall be sold as herein provided, or until the same shall be divided. - Sixth: Any advancements made by me to my children shall not be charged against them in the division of my estate unless here in expressly provided. - Seventh: I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Mary Chambers One Piano, and the same now in my residence, and no charge shall be made against her therefor. - Eighth: I give and bequeath to my wife Matilda J. Chambers and my daughter Mary Chambers my mare called Maggie and my buggy to be held and used by them jointly with power to sell and dispose of them and no charge against them or either of them on account thereof. Ninth: It is my will that my daughter Mary Chambers shall have at my residence as long as the same may be held by my wife or owned by my estate, a house and that she shall be supported and cared for in the same manner as she has been by me during my life and that right is now hereby given her. - Tenth: In the event my wife Matilda J. Chambers shall die without having sold my property as she is herein empowered to do, then the same shall be divided at her death equally among my children B. W. D. Chambers, Byrd Chambers, Mary Chambers, Belle Watson and Dora Winfrey as herein before set forth subject to the deductions mentioned herein and with any restrictions or limitations herein provided for. - Eleventh: The interests in my estate devised to my daughters Belle Watson, wife of Jerome Watson and Dora Winfrey wife of J. Winfrey are to be and shall be held in trust for them and for their separate use and benefit and free from the debts or liabilities of their respective husbands by the Trustee or Trustees hereafter to be appointed as provided for by this my last will and testament. - Twelfth: I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Paulah Chambers One Diamond Ring