James M. Mullin of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky being in sound mind and in full possession of my reasoning faculties, and being fully conscious of the uncertainty of life do make and ordain this my last Will and testament in the manner following, viz: First I constitute and appoint James Hawkins my sole Executor of this my last Will, directing my said Executor to pay all my just debts and the legacies hereinafter given out of my estate. Second: I desire that my wife Elizabeth C. M. Mullin shall continue to reside on the lands of my homestead provided she should survive me and that James Hawkins and family shall move into the house with her and have control of all business connected with the farm and that the said Hawkins shall provide sufficiently for the comfort and welfare of the said Elizabeth C. M. Mullin during her life. Third: I desire that the said Hawkins shall have entire control of all my property both real and personal during my wife Elizabeth C. M. Mullin's life and that he shall have the entire proceeds of my homestead during her life for taking proper care of and sustaining her during her life. Fourth: I desire that the said Hawkins shall retain all my personal property and dispose of same as he deems best and proper for the benefit of her and my legal heirs. Fifth: I desire at the decease of my wife Elizabeth C. M. Mullin that all my real estate and personal property if any be equally divided among my children or their heirs as follows: Giving to Joseph Eblens his an equal part and giving the said Eblens the power legal right and privilege to dispose of same as he deems best for their interests: Giving to my daughter Eliza Y. Thomasson her heirs and equal part less ($213.50) Two hundred and thirteen dollars & fifty cents which she and her heirs have had the benefit of heretofore. And giving to all my other children an equal share, share and share alike. In Witness whereof I have here set my hand and seal the 10th day of March 1881.
