I Boey A Powell of Dorset Haverdon Co. Humbly being of sound mind & memory do hereby make publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made, 1st I hereby order and desire my Executor as soon after my decease as possible to sell and dispose of all my personal property either by public or private sale as he may deem best, - 2nd, I desire further that my Executor shall sell both of my farms, they being all the land that I now own, both farms containing about One hundred, eleven acres and one third. That one of them shall be sold as soon as is convenient, the other he may take more time in selling if he thinks best. said Executor shall have full power to make the deed or deeds to whomsoever he may sell and that said deed or deeds shall be as valid as if made by me or the Court when signed and acknowledged by him as my Executor - 3rd, And I desire that the proceeds from the sale of the aforesaid personal and real estate shall be used for the payment of all my debts after having been presented according to law, and the expenses that may accrue in any way hereafter concerning me, and the remainder of said money left in the hands of my Executor after having paid out as above mentioned shall be used by him for the benefit of my four Children, giving to them as necessity may demand, but the division shall be equal to each of the four Children, said money may be put out in good hands or interest or managed as said Executor may think best, - 4th All the rest of my estate both personal and real of what nature or kind soever it may be not here in before mentioned I desire my Executor to use as he may think best for my Children, and hereby I hereby constitute and appoint my friend John El Clayton Executor of this my last will and Testament and should said Clayton refuse or fail in any way, then in his stead I appoint John B. Egles, In Witness whereof I have hereunto caused my name to be written to this this instrument
