

State of Kentucky, Henderson County,

I, K. J. Parley of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this my last Will & Testament revoking all others. First after my debts are paid I will and bequeath unto my following named children five dollars each to be paid out of my Estate by my Executor So wit: Ann C. Davis, Virginia C. Parson, W. C. Collins Robertus Parley, H. C. Parley and Sarah A. Harding. Second I direct that the remainder of my estate personal real and mixed, after my wife's third under the law is deducted, be equally divided among all the remainder of my children and request the Court to appoint my said wife Guardian of all my minor children and especially of her own children, and she may be permitted to keep together any property descending from me to her own children for their maintenance, education and support.

Witness J. M. Stone.

C. Bailey.

K. J. Parley.

State of Kentucky, August Term 1890, Henderson County Court,

25th day of August 1890.
This day a paper purporting to be the last will & Testament of K. J. Parley dec'd. of Henderson County, was this day produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of J. M. Stone, subscribing witness thereto and by R. S. Easton & Geo. H. Smith as to the signature of C. Bailey, the other witnesses thereto, therefore the same was adjudged by the Court to be the last will and Testament of K. J. Parley dec'd. and ordered to be recorded as such, which is here done.

In the name of God Amen.

I, P. H. Lockett of the City of Henderson and State of Ky, knowing the uncertainty of human life & being now of sound mind and disposing memory make and ordain this my last will & testament as follows. 1st I devise my executor hereinafter named to pay my just debts including the cost of a plain & unobtrusive burial if I leave sufficient estate to pay said debts. If I do not I enjoin upon her the duty of saving her own estate even if some of my creditors should remain unpaid. 2nd I give and devise to my dear wife Ellen Lockett the entire estate, whether real, personal or mixed of which I may die possessed, to have and use as to her may seem best for her own comfort and the maintenance & education of our children, and this devise includes the life policy I now am carrying and any other policy which I may be carrying at the time of my death, continuing her however to use the means she may have, rather in the maintenance and education of the younger children rather than in advancing those who are able by industry to support themselves. 3rd Having perfect confidence in the ability and integrity of my said wife as well as in her love and devotion to our children I hereby nominate and appoint her the executrix of this my last will and Testament, and the Guardian of my children, or such as may be under age when I die, I request the Court to qualify her both as Executrix and Guardian without surety and desire that she deem it best she be allowed to spend not only the interest but the entire estate of each child to so maintain and educate him or her as will fit the children for love of usefulness. And I beseech her to use every possible endeavor to lead them to live a Christian life.

Oct. 1st 1877

P. H. Lockett.

State of Kentucky, August Term 1890, Henderson County Court,

25th day of August 1890.
This day a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of P. H. Lockett dec'd. of Henderson County, State of Ky, was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of J. H. Lockett, Geo. H. Smith and Jas. P. Clay, who testified that the said instrument of writing is wholly both body and signature in the hand writing of said P. H. Lockett, and at the time of signing said instrument of writing he was of sound mind and disposing memory. It is therefore adjudged that said instrument of writing is the true last Will and Testament of said P. H. Lockett and ordered to be recorded which is here done.
