

Witnesses Thos H Beverly
A H Dudley

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
Henderson County Ky Oct 25th 1892

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will & Testament and the codicil thereto of Frank Giles died late of Henderson County Ky - was produced in open court and proven according to laws by the oath of A H Dudley - R S Eastin and Thos H Beverly attesting witnesses thereto. Thereupon the same was adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of Frank Giles died and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done.

Attest J H Hart, Clerk

I Horatio L Cheaney being of sound mind & disposing memory do make and declare this as my last will & Testament.

First - It is my will that all of my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid.

Second - having assisted all of my children at various times and having recently conveyed by deed to my sons L H & M Cheaney the land on which I am now living I do not desire that the land or any advancement made by me to any of my children shall be charged to them in the settlement of my estate.

Third - the estate real & personal which I shall own at my death I wish divided into three equal parts one third thereof <sup>I devise to my son L M Cheaney</sup> ~~the sum of five hundred dollars~~ I devise to the children of L H Cheaney and the five hundred dollars to be deducted there from. I give and devise to my son L M Cheaney in addition to the third already devised to him - and the remaining third part of my estate I give and devise to the children of my deceased daughter Mary Ann Hopgood and to the children of such as shall have died - they to take their portion of the parent.

My said grandchildren are to be charged as between themselves with such advancements as I may have made to them.

Fourth - I appoint my son L M Cheaney as my executor I request that he shall be allowed to qualify without giving security. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 16th Mar 1889.

Subscribed by H L Cheaney in his presence by us at his request in his presence - Feb 16th 1889.

S L Marshall

Joe K Lockett

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
Henderson County Ky Oct November Term - Nov 1892

This day this paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of H L Cheaney late of Henderson County Ky. was produced in open court and proven according to law by the oath of S L Marshall & Joe K Lockett subscribing witnesses thereto. Thereupon the same was adjudged to be the true last Will & Testament of H L Cheaney died and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done.

Attest

J H Hart Clerk

In the name of God Amen.

I Phoebe A Lawler of Henderson Ky being of sound mind and memory do hereby make and publish this as my last will and Testament.

1st - I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Nissie Smith wife of A C Smith a one-half interest in the house and lot in which I now live on Alvaria Street in the city of Henderson Ky. between Washington and Powell Streets.

2nd - I give and bequeath to my Granddaughter Myra Smith daughter of Nissie A C Smith the other one-half of the house and lot hereinbefore bequeathed to Nissie Smith - also all the personal property of which I may die possessed to be equally divided between Nissie Smith Myra Smith & A C Smith. But in the event my said daughter and granddaughter should continue to live upon said premises during the life of the said Nissie Smith then she nor her husband who may be living with her are to be charged with rent of Myra's part. But should Myra marry and desire a division of the property then same shall be made

It is my will and wish that said property herein bequeathed to my daughter, Missie Smith shall be hers absolutely free from the control or debts of her husband the said A C Smith. In the event my daughter and grand daughter should see fit to dispose of the house or lot herein bequeathed then the one-half of the proceeds thereof to be paid to Myra or her Guardian for her In testimony whereof I have set my hand this Sept 30th 1892. Mrs Phebe A Lawler

Witnesses
John Gochring
Mary Woodbridge.

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
Henderson County, Oct November Term Nov 28 1892

This day this paper purporting to be the will of Mrs Phebe A Lawler died late of Henderson County Ky, was produced in open court and proven by the oath of John Gochring one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. Thereupon the same was adjudged by the court to be the true last will & Testament of Mrs Phebe A Lawler died and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done.

(That) J. H. Hart clk.

Will of
Lem. Ward

Quard Henderson County Kentucky April 28th 1892
I Lemuel Ward being weak in body but sound in mind do here by make this my last Will and Testament.

I desire to give to my wife Harriet Ward all of my personal property to wit consisting of one spotted mare one cow and yearling and all of the hogs I own and all of the House Hold and kitchen furniture also all of the provisions on hand and one third of all the corn raised on my lands this year also I desire to give the said Harriet Ward my wife all of the notes, debts and money I have about twelve hundred dollars I desire to give my wife Harriet Ward my Homestead including the house it being the land bought by me from Isaac Watson containing thirty five acres more or less, also one tract of land known as the Baley Gibson tract of land containing one hundred and forty six acres which I bought of C & Sights and William Shaffer. All of the above named land and property I give and ~~grant~~ <sup>sell</sup> to the said Harriet Ward my wife her ~~children~~ <sup>heirs</sup> to take possession of same without bond and use for her benefit what is left of the above named property and bonds at the death of my wife is to be equally divided between my children being John D Ward J. J. Ward C. W. Pig Washington Ward W. J. Ward given under my hand this day and date.

Attested by W Royster.
Wm B Floyd.

Lemuel Ward

State of Kentucky } Henderson County Court
Henderson County, Oct Oct Term Oct 28 1892.

This day this paper purporting to be the will and Testament of Lemuel Ward died late of Henderson County was produced in open court and proven by the oaths of Wm B Floyd & W Royster subscribing witnesses thereto. Thereupon the same was adjudged by the court to be the true last will and Testament of Lemuel Ward died and ordered to be recorded as such which is here done.

J. H. Hart clk.

Will of I Preston Sights of Henderson County State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament. To wit.
First— All my just debts and funeral expenses shall be first fully paid.
Second— I give devise and bequeath all the rest residue and remainder of my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife Elizabeth Jane Sights to have and to hold during her widowhood.