hold all my property of whatever kind wherever located of which property I am possessed for the joint use of herself and our three daughters Juvenia W. Ordina & Mantley Marshall - so long as they remain unmarried - and until the youngest daughter becomes of age - except that if my said wife should marry then she is to have absolutely one third of said property then on hand - in case of my wife's death all said property is to be used for support & support of my three daughters untill they become of age & marry at which time their then interest in said property ceases and said property is to be used for the joint & support of said daughters unmarried & not of legal age. But when all of said daughters become of age and married. Then said property is to be divided during to my wife a full one third & the the remainder in equal parts to my children then living.

Third. Of said property I except my shot gun which I give to my son Charles Marshall & my family Bible which I give to my daughter Mantley Marshall.
Fourth - I wish the Court to appoint my wife Eliza J.
Marshall executor of this will without bond.

Will of Mrs Sarah Bannings

I Sarah Bannings of the City of Henderson State of Kentucky do make and publish this Testament as and for my last will and Testament.
First - I request that my funeral expenses be paid, and any just and legal debts I may owe at the time of my death.
Second - I give and devise and bequeath unto my son Thomas Bannings and my daughter Mary Ann Davis, my entire property of every kind and character to be the same real or personal property and including any and all proceeds of any life insurance policy heretofore issued for my benefit on the life of my late husband W^m Cunnings. Or by such proceeds be on hand or owing to me at time of my decease and including any and all property relating to which I may have become entitled or be now entitled to receive or hold under the last will and testament of my said deceased husband or which I have the right to dispose of by will in favor of all the property which I have power to dispose of by will. To each of my said children above named I devise an equal share in my estate to them absolutely. But the share I devise to my said daughter shall be for her exclusive use and benefit and free from the control and debts of her husband. If my said daughter should die leaving no child or children her issue surviving her and any part of her share be unused or left at the time of her death it shall pass to and vest in her child or children - But if she should die leaving part of her share unused and she have no child (her issue) surviving her then the portion so left by her in that event shall pass to and vest in my son Andrew Cunnings.

3^d - Upon the condition that my son W^m Cunnings (of M^o or M^o) shall acquiesce in and express that he is contented with the disposition I have made of my property in this will I release him from the payment of a debt he owes to me in amount about $250. and so far as I have the power so to do I also release him from the payment of a debt he owes to his father my late husband which I think is in amount about $300 or more or less.

4th - I constitute & appoint my son Thos Cunnings the Executor of this will in quest that the Court granting probate thereof will not require him to give surety upon the Executors Bond. Witness my hand of the said Sarah Cunnings on this 31st day of July AD 1894.

- Executed to wit -

I Sarah Cunnings of Henderson State of Kentucky widow of W^m Cunnings deceased do hereby make and publish this instrument as and for Codicil to my last will and testament which last will bore date July 31st 1894. and I do hereby revoke so much of said will as directed the proceeds of any life insurance policy issued for my benefit on the life of my late husband if such proceeds be on hand or owing me at the time of my decease to pass to my son Andrew Cunnings and daughter Mary Ann Davis I having bequeathed therein an equal share to each of them More in law thereof I divide and bequeath the said proceeds of said policy to my son Thos Cunnings subject to such debt as I may owe my son Andrew Cunnings. Out of said proceeds my said son Thomas is directed to pay off such debt as I may owe to my son Andrew Cunnings and my son Thomas shall retain as his own any balance left after paying said debt. If the proceeds are not sufficient therefor then he will apply the proceeds as far as they will go to such purpose. This policy referred to is that issued by the Cornsant Mutual Relief Association of Illinois of Galburg Illinois in amount One thousand dollars and which should be acquired within by or about Nov^r 1894 as to the rest of my revocable will dated July 31st 1894 it shall remain in full force and effect as written. Witness the hand of Testatrix this 31st day of July 1894.
