

In the name of God a men, I Sarah Stewart of the City and County of Henderson State of Kentucky, conscious of the fact that it is allotted to all to die, and being weak in body, though sound in mind, do ordain and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and other wills heretofore made, I am first I will and devise that all my just debts be paid and after that is done, I will and devise to my son, Alexander W. Stewart my house and lot situated on Drion between Green and Elm streets in the City of Henderson, lot fronting fifty feet on Drion running back one hundred and twenty six feet together with all appurtenances thereto belonging. I also give to him the aforesaid Alexander W. all my house hold goods wares and furniture, with kitchen utensils. Item 2^d I direct that my son Alexander W. Stewart shall pay my debts, and pay to my son John H. Stewart the sum of two hundred dollars, and to my son Charles J. Stewart the sum of one dollar and I hereby create the legacy of two hundred dollars which I give my son John H. Stewart a lien upon the house and lot herein devised to Alexander W. Stewart to secure its payment. Item 3^d I hereby nominate and appoint my son Alexander W. Stewart my sole Executor to be taken without security. This 7th day of July 1878.

Sarah Stewart

Signed and acknowledged in the presence of Martha L. Galloway
Margaret Fowler
Jesse J. Bunch

State of Kentucky, Jackson County Court 1878 (26th day of Aug 1878)
Henderson County

This day this Paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah Stewart late of Henderson County Ky. deceased, was produced in open Court and proved according to law by the testimony of Martha L. Galloway, Margaret Fowler and Jesse J. Bunch subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same was adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of said Sarah Stewart dead and ordered to be recorded as such, which is done accordingly.

Attest

Geo. W. Smith C. C. C.
By Saml. W. Sigmore D. C.

R. G. Rouse Sr.
Will
In the name of God Amen. I R. G. Rouse Sr. being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish my last Will as follows. 1st I desire all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as is practicable. 2^d It is my will and desire that all my property of every kind go to my wife Ann Eliza Rouse for the period of her natural life, to be held and used by her to secure her a comfortable support, but not to be sold unless a sale be decreed by Court to pay my debts, this devise includes lands houses & personal property notes & all other things I own. 3rd After the death of my said wife Ann Eliza. It is my will and desire that all my real estate and such personal estate as may be left after the death of my said wife Ann Eliza, go to and belong to my daughter Mary Ann Rouse, and her heirs. 4th I hereby nominate John H. Smith Executor of this my last Will and request that he be qualified without security. Subscribed and published as his last Will in the presence of M^r M. A. Walden

James E. Williamson who sign in his presence and in the presence of each other Sept 2^d 1878
M. A. Walden
James E. Williamson

State of Kentucky, Jackson County Court 1878 (26th day of Aug 1878)
Henderson County
This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of R. G. Rouse Sr. dec'd. late of Henderson County Ky. deceased was produced in open Court and proved according to law by the testimony of M^r M. A. Walden and James E. Williamson subscribing witnesses thereto, the same was adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of said R. G. Rouse Sr. dec'd. and ordered to be recorded as such, which is done accordingly.
Attest Geo. W. Smith C. C. C.

R. G. Bailey
Will
I Mr. H. Bailey of Henderson County Kentucky, being in my usual state of health, but knowing that it is once appointed for all mankind to die, and wishing to dispose of what little worldly goods and chattels I may have while in health. - Item 1st I do hereby make my last Will and Testament in the words and figures following (to wit) I do hereby will and bequeath to my wife Hecurilla P. Bailey the tract of land upon which I am now living containing about one hundred and fifty acres of land (more or less) to her and to be hers, and for her use, support and support during her natural life, and all the rents profits and proceeds arising therefrom are to be hers, while she may live, and after the payment of all my just debts funeral expenses &c. I do give and bequeath to my wife all of my stock of Horses, Cattle and Hogs, that I may have at the time of my death, also my farming implements of every kind and description including Wagon and Buggy, should I have them, and also all of my house hold and kitchen furniture of every kind and description, except the articles hereinafter mentioned (namely) It is my wish and desire that my son John A. Bailey have a good feather bed and my secretary be given him by my wife after my death. Item 2^d After the death of my wife it is my Will and desire that the land herein bequeathed to my wife during her natural life, be divided in the following manner