

I, Virginia A. White of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

First, I desire that my just debts be paid immediately after my death including my funeral expenses.

Second, I give to my nephew Joshua B. Staples my farm on the Henderson and Knob Lick Road - my former residence - containing 219 acres, for and during his natural life, and after his death to go to and vest in his wife and children in equal portions if he should marry and have children. If he should not marry or have children, or if his wife and children should die before he does, then said farm shall be his absolutely and in fee simple, but I wish to impress upon him that he must not become indebted or under any circumstances incur debts on said farm or otherwise, and if he does so incur debts, said farm after he marries or if any creditors of his should attempt to subject same to the payment of his debt, then the title to said farm shall immediately vest in his wife and children, as if he were dead.

I further devise to said Joshua B. Staples four head of good mules and one horse, and one year provisions for himself and family and provender for his teams. Also the farming utensils usual and necessary to cultivate said farm and all my household and kitchen furniture.

If I should not have on hand at the time of my death said teams, farming utensils or then my Executor is to purchase same for the purpose aforesaid.

I also devise to said Joshua B. Staples five hundred dollars in money.

Third, I devise to Maude Brashear my stock in the Planters State Bank, and enough money when added to the market value of said stock to make two thousand dollars.

Fourth, I devise to my brother Richard Staples one thousand dollars.

Fifth, I devise to Mrs Jennie Johnson one thousand dollars.

Sixth, I devise to Mrs Horner Knight one thousand dollars.

Seventh, I devise to Earnest Staples five hundred dollars.
Eighth, I devise to George W. White my tract of land in the Diamond Island Bend, Henderson County, Kentucky, or $1000 if I should sell said land.

Ninth, The rest and residue of my estate if any, after paying costs of administration, I devise to Mrs Fanny White, wife of Geo W. White.

Tenth, I nominate and appoint The Henderson Trust Company Executor of this will and request it to be governed by the advice and direction of my attorney Montgomery Merritt in the settlement of my estate.

Witness my hand this the 29th day of March 1898
Virginia A. White

Witnesses

Robt M Dixon

Montgomery Merritt

Codicil

I made this codicil to my will. I hereby revoke the devises in the fourth and seventh clauses of my will to Richard and Earnest Staples, and said devises shall pass as directed in the ninth clause to Mrs Fanny White, as residuary legatee.

Witness my hand this Oct 1st 1898

Witnesses

Robt M Dixon

Montgomery Merritt

Virginia A. White

2nd Codicil

As second codicil to my foregoing will I nominate and appoint Montgomery Merritt Executor of same, in lieu of The Henderson Trust Company.

Witness my hand this Nov 2nd 1897

Witnesses -

Wm A. Albee

Jeffrey Hicks

Virginia A. White

State of Kentucky
Henderson County Book January Term Henderson County Court 1898 Jan 24 1898

This day this paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mrs Virginia A. White late of Henderson County Ky, was produced in open Court and the will was proven according to law by the oath of Robt M Dixon and Montgomery Merritt, the two subscribing witnesses. The Codicil was proven according to law by the oaths of said Robert M Dixon & Montgomery Merritt subscribing witnesses thereto - and the 2^d Codicil was proven according to law by the oaths of Mary Alvers and Jeffrie Hicks the two subscribing witnesses thereto. The said paper with the two Codicils thereto was then adjudged by the Court to be the true last Will and Testament of Mrs Virginia A White, and ordered to be recorded as such.

Given under my hand this 21st day of January 1898

J H Mark Co Clk

Will of Larkin White

I, Larkin White of the County of Henderson and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament.

1st I give and devise to my three children, Lockie Larkin and Ben equally all my estate of every nature and description, real personal and mixed and wherever situated subject to the conditions and limitations herein expressed.

2^d The interest of my daughter Lockie Mullay shall be for her separate use and benefit free from the debts and control of her husband and shall be to her for and during her natural life with remainder to her children.

3rd The interest of my sons Larkin and Ben shall be held and controlled by their trustees herein named when received by him from my Executors until they arrive at the age of twenty five years respectively and then it shall be turned over to them.

4th My real estate shall be managed and controlled by said trustee or his successor as a whole until my son Ben shall arrive at the age of twenty one years and then the same shall be divided equally as before stated, but the share of each son shall be held in trust as before stated until they arrive at the age of twenty five years respectively.

5 The share of my daughter Lockie in the personalty of every description, money, notes, stocks etc shall be held by her trustee or his successor for and during her natural life and the whole income therefrom as well as the income from the real estate shall be paid to her free from the debts and control of her husband and at her death the same shall be for the equal benefit of her children.

6th If either of my children shall die unmarried and without children before they arrive at the age of twenty five years then the share of such one as may so die shall pass to and vest in the survivors subject to the conditions and limitations before stated. If my daughter Lockie should die without children or grand children then living or if after her death all of her children should die under twenty one years of age and without children then living, in either event said interest shall revert to and vest in my said sons either heirs to be held by them as their share is herein devised to be held.

7 Having the fullest confidence in the judgment and integrity of my brother Geo H. White I appoint him trustee and guardian for my said sons and trustee of my said daughter.

8th I appoint the said Geo H. White and Montgomery Merritt Executors of this my last will and testament but the said Merritt shall not be expected or required to look after or control the management of my real estate.
 Witness my hand this the 26th day of December 1887 in the presence of the subscribing witnesses, who subscribed the same in my presence and in the presence of each other.

Witness

Robt Stuart
 G. E. Green
 E. Ward

L. White

State of Kentucky, 1898 February Term Henderson
 Henderson County, 3rd County Court February 28 1898

This day this paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Larkin White dec'd late of Henderson County Ky was produced in open Court and proven according to law by the oath of Robt Stuart one of the subscribing witnesses who also proved the signature of G. E. Green one of the other subscribing witnesses thereto, the same was then adjudged by the Court to be the true last will and testament of Larkin White dec'd and ordered to be recorded which is here done.

Attest J H Mark Co Clk