I H. F. Hunter of Bolards Ky being of sound mind and disposing memory and desiring to dispose of what property I may have at my death do make this my last will and testament revoking all others heretofore made.

I direct that out of the cash on hand at my death my funeral expenses and debts shall be first paid and should there not be enough for that purpose so much of my personal property shall be sold as may be necessary and proceeds applied to the payment thereof. Should it be necessary to sell any of the real estate herein devised for the payment of my debts those to whom said real estate is devised may pay their pro rata of same and the lands devised to those paying shall not be subject to said debts.

I do my wife Sylvany Hunter I give and bequeath for and during her natural life all of my personal property of every description subject to the payment of funeral expenses and debts as above provided and she may use so much thereof as may be necessary for her maintenance and support and keeping the real estate herein after devised her in repair. All the real estate owned by me at my death in the town of Bolards Ky which property real and personal at her death shall go to her two daughters Lillian Young and Dillia Young who have been affectionate kind and obedient to me. I further direct that an annuity of $75.00 be paid her on the 1st day of January of each year out of my farming lands as herein after provided. Should my wife ever marry the personal property then in hand of that herein devised her except the household and kitchen furniture and all of the real estate herein devised her except my residence and the lot upon which same is situated, said lot fronting 65 feet on Main street in the town of Bolards and running back about 150 feet to the stable so as to include meat house and coal house shall at the date of her marriage go to and become the property of her said two daughters and the right to the said annuity of $75.00 shall cease after marriage. She is to hold the said furniture and residence for and during her natural life for her separate

I Mary F. Burbank of the City and County of Henderson and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory do make the following to be my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills made by me -

I will and direct that all my just debts be paid -

I give and bequeath to my grandson Charles D. Burbank when he becomes of age - my eighth (8) interest in my lands located near the Village of Smiths Mills in Henderson County and known as the "Sugar Tree" farm said interest to be valued and set apart to him when he becomes of age by three disinterested persons chosen by the parties interested or appointed by the Henderson County Court but with this proviso. In case my grandson Charles D. Burbank should die before he becomes of age then the property herein bequeathed to him shall revert to my Estate and be distributed as in Section 4 of this will -

I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Susan B. D. Burbank the sum of Three Thousand dollars to be paid to her when she becomes of age or marries -

I advanced to my son David A. Burbank at various times before his death considerable sums of money which amounts together with the above bequest I consider a fair and equitable portion of my estate -

The remainder of my Estate both real personal and mixed wherever located and including my Bank of England Stock I give and bequeath to my two daughters Anne F. Burbank and Mary F. Burbank and my son J. C. D. Burbank to be equally divided between them and benefit free from the control of any husband she may have and at her death the same shall go to her children -

3rd. To my grandsons H. Thomas Kelly Cadmus Kelly and Titus Kelly children of my daughter Sarah A. Kelly died I give and bequeath all of my farming lands of every description owned by me at my death subject to the annuity of $75<sup>00</sup> heretofore devised to my wife Sylvanus Hunter and which is to be a lien thereon but one of said devisees may have said land divided take possession of his part thereof and rent out or work same provided he pays his proportionate annuity -

4th. Should any children be born to me they are to share equally with my said grandchildren and stepdaughters the portions herein devised them -

5th. Should one of my grandchildren die without issue the property herein devised him is to go to his surviving brothers, should either of my stepdaughters die without issue the property herein devised her shall go to her sister and should both of them die without issue the property herein devised to them shall go to my said grandchildren -

In testimony whereof I have this day set my hand, this the 23rd day of March, 1849 -
