State of Kentucky

William C. Hardwick.

I, William C. Hardwick of Crawford County in the State of Indiana being of sound mind and disposing memory, knowing the uncertainty of human life and the absolute certainty of death do now make public and declare this my last will and testament, in manner following, that is to say.

Item First.

I will, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Alice C. Hardwick, all my property real and personal, money on hand or on deposit, accounts notes due and demands, choses in action, articles of value and all other property of every nature and description what ever named by me or in which I have or may have any interest whatever or of which I may be seized that come to be and become the absolute property of said Alice C. Hardwick subject to the provisions of item first of this will.

Item Second. I will, give, bequeath and devise to Jennie Hughes known as Julia Hardwick, the sum of one dollar to be paid to her by my Executor out of any money or property of which I may die seized.

 Item Third. I will, give, bequeath, and devise to my beloved half sister Mary Brackman the sum of one dollar to be paid to her by my Executor out of any money or property of which I may die seized.
 Item Fourth. I will, give, bequeath, and devise to my beloved half sisters, Robert Hardwick, Minnie I. Hardwick, William Hardwick and Richard A. Hardwick, the sum of One Dollar each to be paid to them and each of them by my Executor out of any money or property of which I may die seized.
 Item Fifth. I will, direct and charge the property real and personal decedent and willed herein Item First of this will with the following That my beloved wife shall be charged with and furnish my adopted son Charles Hardwick and Claude Scott with a home with her during their minority, that she do so furnish them and each of them suitable maintenance and clothing during said time and provide them and each of them a suitable and reasonable education provided that they or either of them become or should become independent mechanically or of their own free will, care and abandon without just or proper cause her home then and in that event the one so offending shall have no claim to the trust funds set out and the said Alice C. Hardwick shall not be held responsible for such education, maintenance etc.

Item Sixth. I now state and declare that I make this will having a sound mind, and disposing memory and fully understanding my relations to the members of my family and moreover generally none whatever being neglected, forgotten or omitted by mistake or oversight in this will but that the same expresses my will and desires absolutely and the above was purposely and intentionally made that my estate be directed only as herein directed I make this statement to explain that I have not forgotten any one but fully hold all and each of them in memory.

Item Seventh. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my wife Alice C. Hardwick, of Crawford County, Indiana, Executor of this my last will and testament, fully vesting any and all wills by me heretofore made. That it is my will and desire and I now so direct that my wife qualify act as executrix of this will without bond in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this
