

We the undersigned do hereby certify that very shortly before the death of Abner Sisson, he told the undersigned concerning the way he wished his business settled after his death as follows to wit: He wanted his brother Amos Sisson to administer on his estate both real and personal without giving security for the administration, together with the said Sisson deceased wife, as the chief of his estate lay in Virginia in money. And he wished the Amos Sisson to collect the money and lay it out in money to the best advantage for the benefit of the widow and children of the said deceased. And all other property to be done with as Amos Sisson and his widow thought most proper and best.
Given under our hands and seals this day of Sept 1823
