

I Charles Sherman of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky being in good health and of sound disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.
First, I devise to my two sons Charles W. Sherman and John Sherman and to their heirs forever as tenants in common the farm where I now live and all the lands adjacent thereto owned and claimed by me and all other real estate wheresoever situate that does now or may at my death belong to me to be equally divided between them. And in case my son John who is at this time an infant under the age of twenty one years should die before he attains full age and without leaving lawful issue of his body, then that event I will and devise the whole of my real estate as before mentioned to my said son Charles W. Sherman and to his heirs.
Secondly, What of my personal estate shall remain after the payment the payment of funeral expenses and first debts I will to my said sons and to my daughter Susannah Moore wife of Daniel Moore to be equally divided between.
Thirdly, I have not made any provision for my most deserving and beloved wife Priscilla, because she has repeatedly and still objects to it, stating as a reason therefor that she had unhesitating confidence in the justice, generosity and affection of my sons and that she did not for a moment doubt that they would make every needful and necessary provision for her maintenance and comfort during the short and feeble of her days. And in case her confidence be ascertained to have been misplaced, the laws of the State had made as ample provision for her as she desired.

her confidence be ascertained that she was not misplaced, the laws of the County had made as ample provision for her as the laws of Kentucky. I do hereby revoke all wills heretofore made by me Should I have made any, but of which I have not at this time any recollection.

Fifthly. I nominate, constitute and appoint my before named two sons Executors of this my only and last will and testament.
And I desire that they be permitted to take upon themselves the execution thereof without giving security as the law requires for the faithful execution of the trust herein and hereby committed to them.

Lastly. I do hereby make and declare the above and foregoing writing to be my true and only last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal this 30th day of March 1821

Charles Sherman

The above and foregoing writing was signed, sealed, acknowledged by the testator as and for his last will and testament in our presence
