

In the name of God Amen

I Frederick Geizer of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky being in a perfect state of health, of sound mind and disposing memory, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made.

First after all my just debts are paid, it is my will and desire that the following disposition be made with my property. Having made a marriage contract with my present wife Margaret in which I stipulated to pay her seven hundred and fifty dollars and a horse, saddle and bridle of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars which I have fully paid her, Now it is my will and desire that in addition thereto, she is to have one negro boy named Ben about one year old and one bed of the value of one hundred dollars to her and her heirs forever, then the whole of the residue of my estate both real and personal be divided in five equal portions or shares as near as can be, One share of which I will, bequeath and devise unto my son Jacob Geizer and his heirs forever, also one share of which I will, bequeath and devise to my son Frederick Geizer and his heirs forever, also one share I will, bequeath and devise unto my daughter Julian Hicks and her heirs forever, also one share I will bequeath and devise unto my six grand children, children of my daughter Nancy who intermarried with John Edwards, namely Mary Ann who intermarried with J. B. H. H.

made a marriage contract in the presence of my property, Having in which I stipulated to pay her seven hundred and fifty dollars and a horse, saddle and bridle of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars which I have fully paid her, Now it is my will and desire that in addition thereto, she is to have one negro boy named Ben about one year old and one bed of the value of one hundred dollars to her and her heirs forever, then the whole of the residue of my estate both real and personal be divided in five equal portions or shares as near as can be, One share of which I will, bequeath and devise unto my son Jacob Geizer and his heirs forever, also one share of which I will, bequeath and devise to my son Frederick Geizer and his heirs forever, also one share I will, bequeath and devise unto my daughter Julian Hicks and her heirs forever, also one share I will bequeath and devise unto my six grand children, children of my daughter Nancy who intermarried with John Edwards, namely Mary Ann who intermarried with John Reinhardt, Frederick, Montgomery, Benjamin Franklin, John and Alfred Edwards or the survivors of them and their heirs forever, also one share to my daughter Polly Turner the wife of Robert Turner during her life only and after her death if any part of said share should be left more than sufficient for her support to my two grand sons expressly provided in the last will of my said daughter Polly Turner, London shall not be compelled to pay into the hands of my said daughter Polly Turner, but the same now bequeathed and devised unto my daughter Polly Turner, but the same shall remain in the hands of my said daughter Polly Turner, but the same to her any part or the whole of said legacy or the proceeds in money for whatever sum they may sell it for and that any receipts or writings witnessing the payment of any part or the whole to my said daughter Polly Turner and signed by her through covert, shall be good and sufficient discharges to my Executors from any liability whatever. It is further my will and desire that my Executors will as soon as convenient after my decease and an appraisement of my slaves and personal estate is made request a meeting of all my children or grand children then living, or those entitled to their portion or share agreeable to the provisions of this will, and then to decide whether it will be most to the interest of all to sell, or divide the tract of land on which I now live in five equal parts in value, should they not all agree in that case a majority shall govern, to be clearly understood that those entitled to one fifth part of my estate which is here called one share, shall have but one vote. It is further my will and desire that my slaves with the exceptions hereafter made, be divided in five equal lots in value, the valuation to be governed by the appraisement made by order of the County Court which shall be decided by lot to which slaves each one is entitled, after this division takes place should any of the slaves be unwilling to with any or either of my heirs that dress them out that case my Executors are hereby with any or either of my heirs or assigns in that case my Executors are hereby fully authorised and requested to sell them at private sale for the best price they can to any person they are willing to live with and to pay the money over to them that drew said slaves.

It is to further expressly understood that my three old slaves George and Sally his wife and Frank is not to be taken in the division, but they are at liberty to live with any of my heirs they choose without accounting for them in any way.

The personal estate to be disposed of as a majority may decide.

In the event of the sale of the land aforesaid my Executors are hereby fully authorised to convey the same by deed to the purchaser or purchasers and I do hereby constitute my son Jacob Geiger my son Frederick Geiger and my sons in law John Collier and Jacob Hiker my lawful Executors to this my last will and testament, and as I owe no debts it is my wish and desire that my Executors shall not be required to give security for the performance of their Executorship.

Given under my hand and seal this 12th day of December 1833
