

January the 2nd day 1881 I make a few hours before his Decease respecting his last will when yet he was in his perfect senses as follows to wit: My part of the tract of of land whereon I now reside my dear wife the shall have it forever and my son Samuel is to furnish and to make unto that part of Sana a special deed unto my wife and her children and no other. Negro Maria them and shall continue to be their and her children. One of my wife bought of her money therefore shall continue to be her one Horse creature and a mare my wife shall have if my Horse creatures and so likewise of the Cows sheep and Hogs she is to have two Cows two sheep and two Hogs my wife Dinah shall be the full possession of my wife til my youngest son arrives to the age of two one year and then said Dinah with her children shall return back to my other Equally divided among them even like but of all my other Effects and property mine shall be equally divided unto the my wife. All my negroes shall be with my wife and children like

Jefferson County Wills 783-1813 www.kentuckyproducers.com in the year 1801 and then my son Samuel have the Negro man Charles I have the full confidence in you my Children that you will what is just and right both to my wife and the little infants

We the undersigned do hereby Certify that a few hours before Jacob Blankenbecker, died to wit on the same 2nd day of January 1801 being the day on on which he died we heard him utter his words well as is herein before set forth being then in his last sickness and as we believe in a sound mind

John Saml Mow

William George

At a County Court held for Jefferson County at the Court house in Louisville on Monday the 19th day of January 1801

The within inductive and last will of Jacob Blankenbecker deceased was proved by the Oaths of William George and the said John Saml Mow and at the instance of of Samuel Blankenbecker admitted to record

Test Wardent Pope

In the name of God Amen.

I John B. Christian of Fayette County and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and intending to take a Journey shortly for the recovery of my health do constitute ^{appoint} and ordain and publish this as my last Will and Testament.