I John P Aldridge of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

I devise to my son William Christian Aldridge all my estate real, personal and mixed wherever situated to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple Subject to the legal thirds of my wife. And in case of the death of my said child before he arrives at the age of twenty five years, then then the property to him devised shall go to my wife, unless he should marry and leave issue, in which case the same shall go to such issue, and in case of the death of such issue or child of the said William, without issue and under age, then the same to go to my wife. She is to hold it in fee simple.

I appoint my wife Executor of this will and no security shall be required of her by the Court. She is to take, her to which the law entitles her as if no will was made. Witness my hand and Seal this 21st day of August 1823.

She is to take her share to which the law entitles her as if no will was made. Interlined before signing.
